Thread: Free Apple TV 3 Months

Wilmer - November 12, 2023, 1:53 pm

I don't post often but thought I'd drop some information I found to help somebody here. If you're not currently subscribed you can get Apple TV for 3 months absolutely free. On the bestbuy website search apple tv and you should find it. It's repeatable as well which is the best part. I did it 3 months ago, expired yesterday and just did it again no problem. So that's 6 months apple tv at this point for nothing. They have banger shows on there as well. These are my top ones without spoiling anything.

1. Blackbird - about a guy in prison
2. For All Mankind - Space race if we didn't win
3. Invasion - Alien invasion scenario
4. Severance - Your memory gets split in two so you have no clue what you do at work and vice versa
5. Ted Lasso - Feel good show about a football coach trying to coach a soccer club

<https://www.bestbuy.com/site/apple-free-apple-tv-for-3-months-new-or-returning-subscribers-only/6484512.p?skuid=6484512> Should be able to link this since best buy I believe.

Not stackable but repeatable. I've done it multiple times now on the same account

Totally legit guys! I just signed up for my 3 months, only took a few minutes. You do have to put in credit or debit card info, but nothing is charged at time of purchase. 7 day trial + 3 months free then $9.99/month

Just cancel before trial ends and won't be charged a penny.
