Thread: What gaming mouse are yall using?

BeastX - November 15, 2023, 4:21 pm

Hey, I play a lot of FPS games and was wondering for the people who play similar games, what mouse do you use or aim best with? Looking for recommendations, my currently mouse, Lamzu Atlantis Mini started having scroll wheel issues.

I switched back to playing Call of Duty on my PS5 so I use a controller. However, when I was still playing on PC the mouse I have and used is the SteelSeries Aerox 3 Wireless.

Well, actually my middle mouse button doesn't work ?

Currently enjoying the Razer Mamba Wireless, quite comfy as it's wireless but feels a bit heavier than others.

I have the basilisk v3 by razer

Prettykitty - November 15, 2023, 10:55 pm

A black web mouse from Walmart (free sample).

Goku - November 16, 2023, 12:26 am

Razer Basilisk Ultimate

But, I mostly use my Xbox controller for gaming.

Rocking8409 - November 16, 2023, 1:48 am

Razer Viper Ultimate and quite happy with it

Holy shit, I still got my old Razer and I gave up on it due to the same issues.

Nowadays, I use Logitech G502 Hero RGB Gaming

Crowned - November 16, 2023, 2:14 am

Razer Viper Ultimate

DANG, it's on sale for half price too. It's only $50. I'm really tempted to get one actually.

ACTUALLY I just went for the buy since it's 50% off :D

I can test it out for a few weeks and see if I like it. Amazon has a 3 month return policy in place now cause of the holidays. :)

Razer Viper Mini, same issue wheel click doesn't work anymore, scrolling up and down still works fine but sometimes it gets confused. This is my second one of the same mouse, the first one suddenly stopped moving at all, clicks were working fine but it just didn't move at all, it was still in warranty so I changed it.

A lot of Razer mouses I see, nice!

I've been using Razer Naga mice for the last decade now and don't plan on switching anytime soon.

Logitech G502 Hero. It's basically the only mouse I've used. Getting some nice ceramic or glass skates is a huge upgrade.

Novelette - November 16, 2023, 5:15 pm

I have a Logitech Superlight. Good mouse if you want wireless with no latency and lightweight. Before I had a Glorious Model O- which was wired but was stupid light.

conquerorworm - November 16, 2023, 5:26 pm

i am a very unfortunate fellow basically i just have a stained mousepad :(

It's really nice whether you're gaming or just browsing. Back in the day when I had anger issues I used to break mice every month, when that stopped I still needed to get replacements due to poor quality mice that I bought.

That's until I got my G502 ?

Very nice! I just got mine and I just plugged it in. It feels really nice in the hand, but a bit small compared to the Razer Deathadder tbh. It's nice to have a middle mouse button again ?

ultragigadude - November 16, 2023, 6:45 pm

G502 Lightspeed. Super nice, highly recommend :)
