AirVPN is offering up to 74% off on their plans. I bought the 3 year plan as I use them for their port forwarding ability.

This year was awful. I feel like companies did not even do the bare minimum, they just put up Black Friday ads and cut prices like 5%.

I was really hoping to find some cool deals, something that I wasn't really looking for but it was such a great deal that I had to buy it. Didn't find a single thing. I'm not a big shopper so Black Friday / Cyber Monday are kind of the only times where I actually just shop around.

True but I got a few sales off the cyber sec section that's about it.
