Thread: [\[Hack Friday\] Custom Award Sale](#)

Omniscient - November 22, 2023, 11:28 am

This is the first sale item I'm posting for our Holiday offerings (Hack Friday).

If you have a group or crew and want to buddy up for a custom award this is your chance.

5 grants $500
12 grants $1000
20 grants $1500

This is a limited time offer. I'll revoke it in a few days. Contact me via PM or Convo if you're interested.

EDIT:

I have been asked a few questions.

1. You are responsible for the award design 24x24 but I suggest you also make a 32x32 version as I am considering a resize soon.
2. Yes, you can sell the award grants (that's common).

Pentatonix - November 22, 2023, 12:00 pm

Oooo I like this. I like the pricing as well.

Edit: Willing to go in with some people on an award. Convo me.

DashPHP - November 22, 2023, 12:05 pm

Such a sweet deal. If only I had the cash for it. :(

Biggy - November 22, 2023, 12:08 pm

Wow, that's one hell of a deal.

I'm assuming lots are going to jump on this. Lets see who's quick enough before it's no longer on sale.

Komodo - November 22, 2023, 12:39 pm

[mention=5037217] gimme 5 awards

Lavish Living - November 22, 2023, 1:07 pm

very nice pricing. most of us paid alot more than that for the ogs. sadly awards dont even sell anymore tho =/

Might be because some people have a gazillion of them.

I'm considering making all the awards 32x32 in size instead of the 24x24 size they are now. We can then get a little more detail in them. Might make a difference.

Sky - November 22, 2023, 3:28 pm

Just paid for a custom with 5 grants. Couldn't pass up the offer.

Immortal - November 22, 2023, 3:56 pm

Interesting wanna do it, but same time have crippling gun addiction and an infant. LMAO

Yeah, but the HF addiction takes precedence so might as well just do it while you have the chance.

I remember you have this sick 5.56 HK416 you showed me one time, then proceeded to tell me about your class 3 license and how know a guy. But then I noticed it was weird you had a $20 Walmart red dot on it which you followed it with "it does the job." My mind kind of blanked for a second like sure my man spent $5,000 on a rifle to put a $20 optic on, I'm sure people have done worse. But then I backed tracked because you're always talking about guns, like surely he knows that's not going to hold zero after a few shots, something must be up, so I looked at the picture again. It was a 22lr, you tried to brag to the chat about your 'military' sources to get you a military rifle and you forgot to cover up the mag well.

"my dad owns microsoft" vs "my dad owns a computer repair shop"

Wouldn't you say?

Watchchu thinking?

I may do one of my own, and then we should go half on an Israel one.

Not sure who we would grant to to though, you, me, Zero and idk who else is Jewish tbh or Israeli for that matter.

Who was that dude wearing the avatar in support of Israel for Zero? Zexo was it you?

I would do my own as an Israeli flag or Star of David but would not sell it, would be free to a select few members.

If you are in IDF and can prove it, you can have one.

Way back, after [mention=4227846] did the plug award we were going to do a second one, I was wondering if he has the GFX still, as I do not even remember what it was.

This would actually be amazing to see happen..and obviously I would love to have one of those awards especially given the current situation.

Come to think of it, I think you and I were the first 2 members to change their avatars to the Star of David on October 7th, I remember us talking about it in Convo directly after it happened basically. ?

Something that was just discussed, the awards have to be those dimensions correct? As in, no double-sized awards like the WHH wings.

Award size is 24x24 but I am contemplating doing a change to make the awards 32x32 so I am asking to get both versions.
