<https://hackforums.net/buyawards.php>

Sale ends Tuesday.

Enjoy and thanks.

DemonAsylum - November 24, 2023, 1:14 pm

Nothing better than Thanksgiving leftovers! Get these awards while you can everyone ?

Eran - November 24, 2023, 1:26 pm

Remember when these were 10k bytes last year, grab them while you can, next year it will go up by another 10k probably!

Was about to say you should flip that 10k to 20k but then I realized you already got all of them

Sky - November 24, 2023, 2:47 pm

Hmmmmmm half tempted to cop the pizza considering how much pizza i've ordered lately. xd

Trust - November 24, 2023, 6:05 pm

No-one buy the sushi award. Das mine.

Omniscient - Can I buy a sushi award if the first was given to me by you?

Hehehe yeah. Got them all last year except sushi because I ran out of bytes. Just copped sushi today to complete my collection

I'd imagine you can yes, because for example the Taco award is listed for sale yet tons of members already had it because of Cinco de Mayo.

Two sushis would be too powerful.

Update: It did not let me purchase a second sushi award even tho I did not purchase the first one. Understandable.

I have no interests in other foods. I will horde bytes for now.

Bastille - November 25, 2023, 2:56 am

I saved 10k for this because I missed it last year, I hoped to get the sushi but didn't expect it to be 20k now, maybe next year ?

Just do a 10k flip and get it. I have faith in you.

I had 50k and flipped 10k so I could get 3 of em.

For a second I thought you didn't get the Turkey and I was going to be shocked lol.

Biggs - November 25, 2023, 7:26 am

Nice, I'll get enough Bytes before tuesday so I can grab the Turkey award.

For now I suppose the best you can do is wait and see if Omni replies to your post asking about the second one.

Fingers crossed brotha ?

Come on, all of the cool kids are doing it. Just one flip, it's not like you'll get addicted.

Sent the remainder. Better snatch it up quick.

Omniscient - November 25, 2023, 11:49 am

10k last year was crazy cheap, I'm good with 20k, maybe next year just 25k if I do this again.

I wouldn't necessarily say it's crazy cheap; if it weren't for Demon funneling bytes through you and selling them, 98% of the forum wouldn't be able to get any of them.

However, with the recent increase in bytes per post, you've basically evened the playing field with last year while also incentivizing more posting activity. Well played.

Lor?d - November 25, 2023, 12:20 pm

If only I hadn't gambled away all my bytes. Maybe next year ?

Hey there, it's been a decade or better since i've ben on HF but I recently stumbled upon my old gmail account and noticed my PW reset link sent awhile back for my HF account and it seems like that's been lost from the db. Would have been nice to reminisce on the GoodOleDays - Omniscient, you have and you have any old snapshots of the forums in 2012? hahaha

Years ago a ton of inactive accounts were deleted. Unsure why you didn't create a new thread to ask about this instead of off-topic posting.

I wish I could afford the turkey in bytes. Maybe next year.

Anyway it looks like the grant message still says 2022, I'm not sure if this is intentional or not?
