Thread: Maxed mauler | 50 atk 99 str 99 range 85 mage | 35M in PK Gear | FIRE CAPE | PK RDY

Autophobia - November 26, 2023, 7:32 am

Account was purchased originally a few years ago from a extremely reputable selling service. Ive had no issues with the account and bought a maxed main from them in the past and sold back to them. Only reason i did not sell this one back to them is the resale value back to them was much lower than what i bought it from them and knew i could get more private sale (resale to them is essentially gamestop values)

Account has no strikes, no membership, has only ever had members with redeem code pins, no socials linked, my personal email is linked from when i bought the account from the original seller service but obviously the email can be.

The account is NOT active and has not been for over a year. I quit runescape but have been hanging onto this account since i could not get a good deal back from the service i bought it from. I only log on it every 30 days to ensure it was not hacked and turned into a rev bot like those sir pugger videos lmao.

I'm open to trades and offers but please note i'm not dumb. I understand the values of these maxed mauler builds as you can look at any service or forums selling these for around 300-400 dollars.. i'm expecting some type of negotiation but understand i'm not letting this go for crackhead prices.

This build absolutely destroys everyone in its level bracket.

As you can see last logged in 30 days. I have a reminder on my phone to make sure i do this consistently to ensure safety of the account.

I got the exact same style of account as you. 13 def pure though. (addy gloves pure)

Good fun the game. Idk if I'm willing to sell as it's sentimental value to me.

You're also missing critical quests like Desert Treasure.

Eh depends on the pk style and how you want to use the account. I personally enjoy entangle + teleblock rush'ing at GE so it worked great for me but if someone is looking to buy an account like this im sure they are more than capable of doing DT if they want it or pay someone a few bucks to do it for them. Just wasn't worth it to me when i played.

I'm afraid it's going to cost a lot more than a few bucks getting DT done considering all stat and sub quest requirements. And if not cost, time.

I think this will hinder your account value ngl.

Account is nice, but your asking price isn't in my range. I worry to much about account recoveries

Definitely wont hurt the value. Honestly many maunder builds are like me and just don't find it that useful to complete the quest as fights are typically only a few seconds long. but i just checked a popular questing service and here are the prices they have listed.

DT 4.83

Waterfall 0.87

The Temple of Ikov 1.65

Troll Stronghold 0.87

Priest in Peril 0.62

The Tourist Trap 1.65

They did not have digsite listed but i can only assume its within that .50-1.50 range. But either way i have some of these already done so lets say roughly $10 to get all the reqs and DT itself done.

Hence why i don't think it will hurt the account. I personally don't play and didn't find the need to use anything but entangle and teleblock and im sure there is plenty of people who feel the same way but if someone truly wants DT done for $10 they can get it done. I'll provide them the service or even cut off $10 off the final price so they can get it themselves. Problem solved.

No problem. If i sell it cool if i don't I'm not too worried about it. I'm not in a position where i need to let it go for crackhead prices. Just figured id throw it out there and if someone is looking to buy they can. On other forums i see these accounts go for 300 all day long. Granted those are highly trusted services and not a regular person. I'm assuming if i let it go person to person sale ill get within the $200 range and I'm okay with that. I know i'll take a hit for not being a account selling service. I'm just not willing to let it go at cracked account prices as i know its legit and has zero chance of being recovered.

Fair enough brother, i did not expect prices for questing and stat building to be that cheap!
