What's up HF

So I just had a little question about sports book is there some kind of bug with the payout system or whatever

I'm sure others already knew this but why does Sportsbook take so long to send the winnings

Just curious that's all thanks :3

I think the payout system happens once a day, and not after a game ends.

Yo quick question

If you could pick... New York Islanders or New Jersey Devils ?

Asking for a friend
