Thread: Blockonome.com - Crypto News Website - Feedback Please

Blockonome - November 29, 2023, 1:48 am

Hi, I am currently using Wix.com paid, to create my website www.blockonome.com

I would love for you guys to give me some feedback, as I know there are some issues that needs to be fixed. However, you might notice something, that I have not noticed yet.

All feedback is appreciated.

You made something nice, you made a blog post website, anyways, well done and keeps the site up and running while you keep up with the site maintenance.

I like it, my question is are you having to write all of these blog/posts yourself or are you gathering them from other sources?

I use AI to write the articles for me, this way I can make non-biased news and focus on the business aspects of the business.
