Thread: Very Generous of Proof - Upgraded from Leet to UBER

HostTeraByte - December 12, 2023, 2:06 pm

First of all, I am very thankful to the community for being so friendly with me, secondly, it's laughable on the OP (I won't name him and give him extra attention which he doesn't deserves), who told me that "it's same with everyone saying HF is nice and members are very friendly, helpful, generous and all those bullcrap when only what I'm doing is trying to get attention" back on my other thread where I opened up being on hackforums and how everything has been very great for me, everyone been helping and giving me real advice on work be done and not asking for potential payments on my Opinion on HF thread. Well anyway, another punch in his face, as he can clearly see that I was generously upgraded by @Proof@ without any catch or fish. Nothing for him to gain, nothing for me to give him in exchange, just complete respect for each other and that is it all!

V

Back on topic, hey everyone, I am glad to say that I have been upgraded to UBER. I will try my outmost best to give as much as possible to the community. I give my most thanks to the members who had always been helpful and supportive upon me and my well-wishers who always held my ground.

I will soon be doing a giveaway as a thankyou appreciation for all the love I have received from every members I have encountered! Stay put and keep an eye for the giveaway! Currently another 1000Bytes giveaway has been clouding within the Rewards / Contest forum so do join in!

Alongside everything, I am aiming for the QL award for which I need another 5 QLs, so if anyone willing to help me out then I'll be very happy getting assisted in my venture to my first award goal! You can QL this thread if you would like to help me out.

I am glad to be able to offer that to you-- hope you make the best of it and continue to be active on HF. Giveaways aren't everything. Helping out members, reporting the spammers or scam spammers and finding a group that you may fit into.

The only two groups I lead are ones you would not fit into right this second, but maybe Pink (ask N or [mention=3707989])

I am nearing my allocation, but I would be willing to pay for an additional one just for you or maybe 10 more-- this would be at Omniscient discretion though.

Yep, I pre-bought them when they were about to go live and have been giving them away to notable members or l33ts who have shown interest in being active. There has been zero incentive to me, I have gotten nothing in return aside from a bill lol.

Update: Omni, for good reason, will not allow me to purchase more-- but what I will do is this... I will upgrade you out of pocket for the 1-year and we will work on it from there. Make sure you reach the requirements or have met them already and send me a screenshot of your award goals.

I will give you a task as I did for everyone else and if you complete it I will upgrade you! I am sorry I could not get you PERM. If one of the remaining 3 or 4 people flake out I will have it sent to you.

HostTeraByte - December 12, 2023, 10:27 pm

I am almost at my Quota to fulfill my goal! 97/100, 3 more QL to go and I'll have it, finally!

Should have just done what I did. I offered 100 bytes per unique QL that I received and it got me to 100. It was an easy push ?

Really? I was giving away 1000s of bytes every two days wasted more then 7k bytes then. Will try your way!

Yep. You should have specified that "1 unique QL = 1 entry. No multiple entries"

I did, but the contest was for 48 hours and at max 20-25 joined and 15-18 were previously in on my old giveaways.

Then you have to specify that they cannot be in one of your previous giveaways tbh. You need to be specific
