Last good game I played was Elden Ring, I also heard good things about Baldur's Gate 3

What kind of video game do you like ?

i bought elden ring awhile back and it looks fun but also way too complicated for me to like get into. idk what im doing so i just gave up like 10 minutes into it. i like online pvp games but they just dont hit like they used to. its like everyone is trying so hard now that i cant chill and play unless im snorting g fuel. so im really looking for some sort of solo game or a online multiplayer game with friends that i can chill and play when i wanna relax.

Yeah I felt that on Fortnite, I don't even enjoy playing while I have to try hard to win a game so I left it
