Ren And Stimpy - December 21, 2023, 11:05 am

Lets go! Good luck everyone!! I love BYTES and I have a HF Gambling addiction. LOL

Prettykitty - December 21, 2023, 10:35 pm

Was initially motivated by the hacking culture. Ended up connecting with a lot of cool people on this site.

Rahul007rhp - December 22, 2023, 12:49 am

I really was motivated seeing a friend of mine doing hacking in games online so decided to learn such stuff as well & joined HF since early 2011. Still enjoying my time here.

Eran - December 22, 2023, 3:34 am

Thanks for this contest, that is a really great idea to prevent LQ entries. I have left you a +3 and a QL.

My first entry will be from the beginning.

I've joined HF in maybe 2015-2016 on a different account and I was only active in the Adult Content Management section, back when eWhoring on KiK was easy and profitable. I was around for maybe 6-9 months before I got burnt out from working on the PC all day and then I abandoned the method and this forum. To this day I can't remember what my username was. But I did learn a lot, help some people and maximized my profits thanks to HF.

Monero-chan - December 22, 2023, 10:17 am

Alright, so back 2013 I got booted offline in BO2 and though that was like the coolest thing ever (I was like 14 back then lol) and thought I can do that to others as well, so I started to research how to do so and came across HF.

Artisan - December 22, 2023, 6:54 pm

Thanks for this giveaway. I joined HF without any interest on the "hack" related stuff. My motivations were simple: belong to an online community. I don't think I have done stuff here that can be considered as accomplishments but I like to think that I have maintained a very clean persona over the years and I would not do anything to compromise that.

Prettykitty - December 23, 2023, 12:25 am

Helped a couple of members open a few services, sold some products on hf the first few years after joining. Learned a lot along the way.

Monero-chan - December 23, 2023, 4:37 pm

For my second post after I found about HF I started to learn about booting people since that's what the craze is all about back then.

Artisan - December 23, 2023, 7:27 pm

Not sure why there are so few entries in this giveaway. Since 24 hours have gone by so I'm taking my second one here.

I first joined up around 2010. Stayed as a lurker for a couple of years but my account got pruned because I had zero posts and hadn't logged in for a while. So I joined again and have been active since. The first time, my motivation was to just get aware of possible side hustles. Even with zero posts and without engaging with anyone, I was able to learn a lot.

Prettykitty - December 24, 2023, 12:12 am

Learned how to design graphics better. Also basic IRC and xmpp knowledge from a few members back in the day.

Eran - December 24, 2023, 10:05 am

Continuing from my first post.

I opened this account in August 2021 not even knowing I'd stick around and put so much effort in my account! I've learned a lot about networking, money making, and I have a lot of plans to contribute to HF in the near future!

Highlife - December 24, 2023, 12:11 pm

I just want to share my knowledge about crypto trading and gain knowledge in any other things that can make money, so HF looks like a great place to do it.

Monero-chan - December 24, 2023, 9:19 pm

For my third post after I learned to boot people I started to do it and thought I was tough for having the ability to do so (I didn't lmao)

Rahul007rhp - December 24, 2023, 10:28 pm

Continuing to my first post.

I have seen a lot of groups on HF and seen them evolve and demolish. This forum has really been so kind to me in terms of good people and knowledge it provides

Artisan - December 24, 2023, 11:44 pm

Now my motivation is same as far as being an active member of the community here. I also do peoples homework on the side.

Prettykitty - December 25, 2023, 12:25 am

Was also initially motivated by some scripts and hacks for msn or other messenger software. Good memories.

Jamika - December 27, 2023, 12:13 am

I really enjoyed here, i got many info that is really good specially in hack forum and chatted alot in lounge, hope i win here too

Amnesiac - December 27, 2023, 9:07 am

My motivation is to find people who have good methods and make them better but I know I won't find them easy

Monero-chan - December 27, 2023, 2:34 pm

For my fourth entry I continued to boot people offline to show people I had the power to do so

Prettykitty - December 27, 2023, 2:52 pm

That brings back memories.. I also experimented with that on call of duty matches. Some shell booter. I remember ddosing the kkk website for fun.. ?

Rahul007rhp - December 27, 2023, 8:40 pm

My motivation nowadays is just to gain knowledge as and when i could from forum and some courses

Monero-chan - December 28, 2023, 8:30 pm

for my fifth post I eventually stopped as I had other things to do in my life at the time

Prettykitty - December 28, 2023, 10:46 pm

Lead a group for a while, and reviewed a lot of eBooks. It was a nice experience.

Rahul007rhp - December 29, 2023, 12:49 am

Entering again , you may see how much motivated iam to get my hands on this prize ;)

Net - December 29, 2023, 12:52 am

Did all the requirements. I honestly had no motivation to join HF, I just randomly stumbled on this forum. I think I first heard about this forum from a friend.

Amnesiac - December 29, 2023, 4:17 am

Getting another entry thank you

Prettykitty - December 29, 2023, 11:24 pm

Had a break for about a year from hf, this was a long time ago, but I came back to catch up with old pals! Was motivated to chat in the active lounge, and enter contests.

Agree with you contest are so fun here , it motivates me and also gives abit of adrenaline rush at times while some dope contest is about to end xD

Taking another spot here lets keep going !

Amnesiac - December 30, 2023, 8:51 am

Getting another entry thank you

Monero-chan - December 30, 2023, 8:08 pm

I keep forgetting to do these, but my next post is I eventually came back to HF to learn about cybersecurity as that was the career I was going for which led to the creation to this account

Prettykitty - December 31, 2023, 12:54 am

Met some really cool gamers way back and we played halo 3 on xbox 360, had a blast.

Rahul007rhp - December 31, 2023, 7:59 am

Motivated in last day of 2023 to win this. Hope to get my hands on this

B3A - January 1, 2024, 12:46 am

I see the bytes i enter

Monero-chan - January 1, 2024, 10:39 am

For my next post I started to familiarize myself with the community here and get to know other member's, quickly learned what not to do lol

Rahul007rhp - January 1, 2024, 8:09 pm

I was also motivated seeing some HQ groups on HF and wished to be a part of them to evolve my learning journey

Eran - January 1, 2024, 11:54 pm

Making a new entry.

Continuing from last post, what encouraged me to improve my account was my first group - The Insiders. I have met so many people that I have shared knowledge with there. It only went uphill.

Prettykitty - January 2, 2024, 12:58 am

I remember sharing a lot of my youtube journey on hf, that was a fun experience! Helped me grow for sure.

Jean Castre - January 2, 2024, 4:05 am

Hey everyone's! I registered the first time for reading & learning through very good & useful tutorials on the forum.. As everybody, I was just a regular member and to give away & support our beloved HF community i've decided to upgrade my account! Next time, i'm gonna purchase ub3r in few weeks hopefully.. I've learned so many things on HF I can't even remember them all but many topics as programming languages, reverse engineering, things related to crypter's and so on..... BIG THANKS HF & HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE'S !! ???

Monero-chan - January 2, 2024, 8:34 pm

when I returned here like 2 months ago or something I bought a bunch of money making methods because I wanted to get money without getting an actual job, I didn't actually invest time into any of them because of a family emergency (its fine now) and now I'm about to spend my last $500 on another method but I'm actually gonna start putting time into it because it has huge potential from the looks of it

Rahul007rhp - January 2, 2024, 9:44 pm

I was even a bit amazed seeing people with higher reps on HF . Back in the days you couldnt ask rep for anything / no rep for rep as well

-Legacy- - January 2, 2024, 10:16 pm

Thanks for the giveaway!

I joined way back in 2008. I had just started picking up my first ever language (Python) and was learning HTML + Javascript. From 2008 - 2012, I was very active here, mainly in the Python section. I created some super cool tools with some very awesome members back then. I've now been a professional software engineer for many years.

I was also a huge Halo 3 junkie, and I ended up learning things like standbys + bridging host, learning what ddos'ing was by getting ddos'ed constantly, learning how to access XBL on a VPN (connected through my computer). I have this funny story where I told this guy to try to ddos me after I connected to XBL on my VPN. I was monitoring my network traffic through a tool (i think iftop?) and I saw which IP's he was trying to attack the VPN with (it was barely a ddos, just a dos from like 3 different VPS's). I then brute forced one of the servers he was using, tried the same password for the other ones and it worked.

I have a million more stories of my HF days. Maybe i'll post another tomorrow

Prettykitty - January 3, 2024, 12:18 am

Had some issues through high school and I shared some things I was going through on hf, the community was very kind, even helped me raise money to buy something for a project. Great memory.

Final entry.

Lastly, I have a few projects that I will release soon on HF. The thing I love about this forum is that there is a buyer for pretty much any service out there, so you definitely have a great network of people here.

GL all.

Euaggelistes - January 4, 2024, 8:05 am

I found hackforums back in 2018. Created an account...posted a bit, sold some custom code/methods that helped others make some money, and then had some changes in my life. My account went inactive and got deleted.

Decided to take my knowledge and apply it to bug bounties. Remembered HF, got a new account back in Nov and now I'm here to increase my knowledge/skills (esp in forensics and pentesting) and also provide others with some assistance along the way. Will I make/sell some new things...only time will tell.
