Thread: 300 bytes for 5 star Google review

Riggs - December 24, 2023, 7:54 pm

I've started a relatively new UK business and could use some help with establishing an online presence.

I'm offering 300 bytes for each 5 star Google review from authentic accounts.

Please note that I reserve the right to refuse reward if any accounts providing reviews do not appear authentic. To satisfy the condition of being authentic, any accounts that leave reviews should preferably have real names and/or avatars, leave reviews in good English and relevant to the business industry, and be appropriately aged (not newly created).

Please PM me for a link to the business review page and thanks in advance for your support.

I have a Google account that is not my primary one, but I have been using it for over 5 years now. I will leave a 5-star review and you can decide if the account meets your requirements or not :)

Please send me the link to your business page.

Google will flag and eventually remove reviews that aren't in proximity to your business or from proxies etc. Also, doing all 5 stars isn't good.
