I do, and I showed her it once. She thought it was some dark web forum at first which I thought was kinda funny.

Married for 4 years; at first she thought the stories were high stakes and now she uses them to throw jabs. Wouldn't change a thing.

Im married so yes on the first question and the wife knows that Im on here.

tristarc - January 9, 2024, 8:57 am

I'm not married. Sometimes I have a girl over at my place, when I wake up I go straight to read on different things on my PC. They don't ask what I'm doing I guess because we are not dating or anything just casual stuff. They rather feel annoyed I'm not giving them attention. (Me in my head: can you go home please lol)

Hackers - January 9, 2024, 7:16 pm

Yes, she's watching a rerun of 30 rock right now to my side - she is considering joining HF soon actually, but got to clear it with the higher ups here if she's going to sign up.

LeetSpeed - January 9, 2024, 9:10 pm

I've been single for a few years now.

Charlie Sheen - January 9, 2024, 9:13 pm

I've been with my wife for 7 years now, and yes she knows. I'm on here way too much for her not to notice. She doesn't really have any opinions about it. She thinks it's neat what some people are capable of and sometimes what's being sold in the market.
