Thread: How rare is Hakkuman Ev1L Egg?

HostTeraByte - January 9, 2024, 4:04 am

Just got this Hakkuman! Really want to buy Bytes right now and make it Live or showcase it for somedays! Saw it just came out on 3-4 th Jan! How rare is it? Really loving this win!

Feels like my comeback to Hakkuman after 13-14 deaths!

Deany - January 9, 2024, 4:11 am

Idk I also got one recently too lol

DashPHP - January 9, 2024, 4:12 am

Damn, sounds like a good head start. Can't wait to find me an egg.

As I got my firs evil egg after couple of days, I guess I can say it's a bit rare like a sapphire or golden egg.

Is amethyst any rare ? Got one a few weeks ago but forgot to hatch it lol

Charlie Sheen - January 9, 2024, 8:55 am

It's supposed to be the one of the rarest right now. So far it looks like only a few have been found. Only 3 golds have been found as well.

Cooligan - January 9, 2024, 9:09 am

I'd say it's one step either above or below Sapphire in terms of rarity.

Ruby's are definitely more common, the one I'm questioning though is the new Amethyst eggs. Not sure where their rarities lie.

If I had to guess based on what I've seen/received from posting, I'd say it goes:

Emerald > Ruby > Amethyst > eV1Le > Sapphire > Gold

Oh, I thought Omni said something about it being the rarest to find in the field now? I might be wrong though. It does seem like a lot of people are getting it

HostTeraByte - January 9, 2024, 11:21 am

The best thing is got another EGG but very afraid of hatching em as I always get killed after soon!

You can try to hatch it, but I'm sure either the plug or grim's crew will eat it like a fresh baked waffle.

I didn't see that post so I'm not sure, but going off of how many I've seen so far it does seem like the Gold egg is still the rarest one.

I'm honestly seeing more eV1Le eggs than I'm seeing Amethyst eggs it feels like. Might just be because they're more noticeable than Amethyst, especially once they start running out of time to hatch and lose color? Not sure. Only time will tell I suppose.

What I'm really curious about though is what the strongest HUM is now; eV1Le or Gold eggs?

Klonopin - January 9, 2024, 3:14 pm

I never knew it existed, looks cool as hell.

what can come out of it?

Oh yeah that's a bit hard to achieve but the 50 kills would be really possible for you've got couple of months to work it out.

Yeah I also think so.

I mean I got most of my eggs during October and then started playing. Got about 18 kills without really grinding and mostly forgetting until got a notification that my Hackuman was killed.

That sucks when you forget about the time your hum will be unhide from it's invisibility mode. You gotta need to put some reminder on your phone so you will always be up on those time you hum needs some attention ?

No no no. My Hackuman saw your Hackuman and wanted to be friends so he went over and tried to give him a high five and your Hackuman missed the high five and got hit a little too hard. Go over into the crew section and see if anyone wants to crew up for Hackuman. Make sure to use your invisibility potions if you're going to be away. Only attack if you know you can kill.
