Thread: Anyone collecting brand new Pokemon cards?

suncappo - January 9, 2024, 12:07 pm

I always see these new Pokemon cards and they are all so different from the ones we had 15 years ago. Too many new ones, but are they worth much?

blackrose_x0x0 - January 9, 2024, 12:10 pm

I still have my old collection but haven't been interested in new cards since the late 90s/early 2000's. I doubt the new cards are worth much.

I have a friend that collects them on a huge scale. He says they are worth quite a bit. I don't collect but I do have a Charizard that I purchased last year, fulfilling a childhood dream.

I had a collection, but sold them off on ebay a couple of years ago.

i still have my old collection. Obviously not PSA 10 but there are some nice 1st edition cards there

Snowwy - January 9, 2024, 3:18 pm

I have a bunch, but they're releasing these new sets far too quickly and close to each other which is annoying.

I only got yugioh cards. Who buying ? Lol

I'm not, but if there's a market for it then I'm sure I have some friends who would own some. They are more the type of collector that is in it to profit, not for sentiment, so if they are able to score some cards of anything they would pick it up - but from what I understand it's the original Pokemon that really bring in the dough.

The charizards were a huge market / might still be - I'm not sure.

I did consider it. The new ones but Japanese naming. They look so sexy!

Anyone still collecting? Id be interested in trade or buying them. Not here but just want to see if people are into it

HerrWinston - July 21, 2025, 6:31 am the new ones arent worth anything, i have collected many cards over the years but the last 3 i stopped, honestly it just doesnt feel the same... do you have a big collection ?

W1NK1LL3RX - July 21, 2025, 7:49 am

I know Prismatic Evolutions is currently the most valuable due to its rarity and collector appeal.

How much value have you accumulated in Pokemon cards? I don't partake in the hobby, but I come across these videos regularly on my YouTube feed, and can see there is some serious money involved in it if you're really into it.

My wife and I recently got into collecting again.

The packs are incredibly expensive when there are not bought at market price.

And they are sooo hard to find in my area.

Let me buy your old collection!

Lefty - July 21, 2025, 9:16 pm

No. But I wish I kept my old ones. Or at least appreciated other peoples collections. Haha
