Yes, absolutely! You're able to earn all the rewards that are available to everyone ?

Eran - January 10, 2024, 2:01 pm

Looks like you got your question answered. Best of luck collecting awards!

diiaz - January 10, 2024, 2:56 pm

Welcome back to HF looks like you've been away for a while.

Increase your activity and keep in touch in convos and I'll upgrade you to L33t.

Some of the awards are really easy to get like the dicey one, you just need to farm up some bytes first. Lounge head is easy, some members knock out 500 posts in a day or 2 when it comes to awards like that. Everyday Ninja is easy you just can't miss a day. I got to 60+ days once or twice and missed a day and had to start over.

Monero-chan - January 10, 2024, 4:38 pm

Reading this thread makes me wish I had gotten the limited time awards for 2022 and 2023, like the Halloween and 4/20 awards, oh well, I'll definitely be not missing this year.

Membership and awards don't really have anything to do with each other besides the upgrade awards. But you can earn all the awards still as a normal member.

Thanks for the insights. I know it's going to be a long journey in getting those awards but i think it's going to be a fun ride. Maybe we will get a 20 year award by then. ?
