You might want to watch Oldboy, original one was in 2003 but there's an American version that was released in 2013! Also Predestination is a good one too. And Fractured from Netflix is a good choice too :)

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Do u know "Vivarium"? This is the only mind fuck movie I've seen recently, I don't remember the release date but it's not an old movie, I didn't like it very much though. Anyway you're right, blow was very nice but it didn't have much to do with what you had asked in your thread. I apologize for the off topic.

I can't believe no one has said...

Altered States - 1980

A psycho-physiologist experiments with drugs and a sensory-deprivation tank and has visions he believes are genetic memories.

6.9/10 IMDB

Jacob's Ladder - 1990 (Note: Not the 2019 reboot)

Mourning his dead child, a haunted Vietnam War veteran attempts to uncover his past while suffering from a severe case of dissociation. To do so, he must decipher reality and life from his own dreams, delusions, and perceptions of death.

7.4/10 IMDB

Maybe cause they not that new although you can't have a list of fucked up films without these two classics, lay off the Sid, while watching, you have been warned.

The Fountain is a great one to watch when you're in a trippy mindset.

American X History is a nice movie that battles racism.

There's a nice list in this thread, be sure to read through it! Aha.

Willing to watch foreign films? "The Wailing" was a korean movie I watched with some friends on discord and it was pretty fucking trippy, all 3 of us had different ideas on what the movie was actually about and what the ending meant.

Don't Worry Darling was a crazy ass movie that I just saw last night. I would highly recommend it for thrillers/mindfucks
