Thank you thank you, I'll be preparing my speech and waiting for my time to do a live broadcast to all of HF to tell them how it feels.

I'd like to thank a few people...

A truly good thread doesn't need to "be about" anything. You just need to sit back and enjoy the high quality content ?

Jamika - January 29, 2024, 10:12 am

It was well deserved as you were replying to 10 year old threads.

Also you're a weeb but I didn't put that into account (I should have)

You're such a good boy. You listen so well.

I'm gonna clear my name here because that's not what happened

CallMePapi was the one who was replying to decade old threads, for the one you're mentioning I didn't screenshot but I guess the mods deleted his replies so it looked like I was the one who dug it up

he also dug up another decade old thread, which I provided proof for here, you can see the same thing happened here as well

I won't bring this up again because it's a really stupid argument but I really hate being falsely accused of things
