Hello every one

So it said that most are right handed, also said that left handed people tend to be artists and so on diiiaz - January 19, 2024, 1:00 am

I am right handed with everything except..... You can fill that in yourself ;)

Apostle9 - January 19, 2024, 1:23 am

I'm left handed and I find it unique.

Syndicate - January 19, 2024, 7:19 am

I do absolutely everything left handed. I think the only thing that I do that's related to using my right side would be using my mouse and shooting guns

Trust - January 19, 2024, 7:27 am

(?????)? ? I am right-handed. Nothing special here. ?

Decades ago they would tie your left arm behind your back if you wrote with it, forcing you to use your right hand instead.

My son teacher was annoyed and thought he cant write well till i explained to her that he uses his left hand

nahburv - January 19, 2024, 3:16 pm

I'm right handed. I've read people who are left handed are more creative. Not sure how true that is though.

Hackers - January 19, 2024, 5:38 pm

Left handed myself, not sure if it means anything. I use right hand as dominant for some things though.

Writing pen/pencil is left handed. Mouse on a computer is my right hand. American Football I throw w/ left hand, but kick with right. Snowboard is left foot forward/downslope. Baseball I swing right handed. Tennis I play left handed. Soccer I kick with right foot. Darts I throw with left, but I broke my hand once upon a time and I got nearly as good with right hand. Ping pong is left hand. Volleyball left hand. Firearms left hand on trigger. Diving I'm right knee up on the board in jump on the board.

I am right handed myself. An artist in terms of graphic design. I do some physical art as well sometimes.
