I purchased the method some days ago. OP is very responsive and helping me with the setup at the moment. Going to post proofs when the first revenue is coming. In my opinion, this is a method with potential and not one of those that leaves you disappointed after purchasing.

AlphaHF - February 7, 2024, 2:42 am

OK so I purchased this method a week ago and here's my review:

The method is definitely a goldmine. Like OP said, it is greyhat so do with that what you will.

He was so confident in his method that he promised me a full refund in the contract if I didn't make anything within a month. How can I say no to that??

The ebook was easy to read and the steps were very detailed and had all of the necessary resources to set everything up

The seller was very helpful and answered all questions on things I was confused about.

There are two ways to set it up: the $30 investment route, and the mandatory $5 investment route (way more work), I took the $30 route because it's mostly autopilot and I am lazy.

It took me three days to set everything up, but that's because I wanted to perfect everything and I am lazy.

It definitely can be done within an hour.

Anyways, after set up, all I had to do was just relax and wait

It's only been ONE DAY after set up and so far I made $157!!

Payment proof:

By the way, you can accept payment in crypto, but I decided to accept the $150 one as a voucher and $7 one as crypto

This method has the potential to be scaled at an insane level if you want to put in the work. But if you're as lazy as me, just look how much I already made without even trying lol.

10/10

5$ investment is mandatory, 30$ is recommended. And no.

I missed it—an honest mistake, nothing else.

Also, the questions are clearly answered in the F.A.Q. section, so I would not see it as neglecting.

I am located in Europe, so my Kraken account is in Euro's. The method works worldwide, as long as you are connected to the internet.

MDE - April 14, 2024, 7:11 am

I purchased a copy of The Greyhatter roughly about a week ago. There's 4 methods in the e-book you receive upon purchase with a telegram channel that is currently being worked on but has a lot of great resources and tips as it stands now.

I've been solely focusing on one of the methods in The Greyhatters. I started with a niche that was way outside the norm and it did turn out too be a bit of failure so I decided to focus more on one of the niches that's recommended in the guide. After setting up my second niche I earned my money back in about 3 days.

The setup isn't that hard too get up and running but the more time you take the better your results will be from my experience. I have limited time and I like too make things look nice so this can take a while depending on who you are.

As for Pancake himself he's been a massive help. Any question I had he'd answer it in detail every time without fail, not only that but the guys goes out of his way too help you review your setups and give feedback on them which helps a lot!

so you never had profits?

the 30 USD payment is it done on chain too?

does the setup involve some trading bots?

Does the setup involve any Know your customer process with verification via mail / phone / ID?
is the earning dependend on the money invested (besides the $5 or $30)?
are the actions liable to tax in europe?

is there any sale or any sort of dropshipping or ewhoring happening?

can it be saturated?

whats the reason that you sell this method instead of doing more of the method

thanks in advance

Hey man!

Thank you for the thoughtful questions. Let me answer them one-by-one, and apologies for the delay.

1. the 30 USD payment is it done on chain too?

If you mean the investment for one of the methods - yes, however not all methods require crypto to be invested.

2. does the setup involve some trading bots?

Not at all.

3. Does the setup involve any Know your customer process with verification via mail / phone / ID?

No, your personal identity is not at risk.

4. is the earning dependend on the money invested (besides the $5 or $30)?

No, this is not something where you invest more = earn more.

5. are the actions liable to tax in europe?

You might have to elaborate, in general no - however two of the methods can be turned into full-time side-businesses and naturally can be taxed.

6. is there any sale or any sort of dropshipping or ewhoring happening?

Nothing adult related at all and no dropshipping.

7. can it be saturated?

In general, no. That's why I am keeping this project up-to-date.

8. whats the reason that you sell this method instead of doing more of the method?

I am actively using the methods myself, the project was started more with the thought for building a community of greyhatters.

Hope I answered your questions! Let me know if you have any other questions and feel free to add me on Telegram @PancakeBoat
