Thread: Go forwards or backwards in time?

Would you rather go to the future, or back in time? I would rather go to the future to see what it holds, and perhaps we'll have infinite wealth, all cures & health, etc. I could see why I might prefer the past though... it's known, you don't have to worry about fast-forwarding to the apocalypse, you can game the markets or invent new products years before the real inventors are alive, etc. So maybe on second thought I'd go back in time.

What about you?

Hmm! Thats a tough one.

I guess the past, since I have seen the future (now) I would be able to fix some things.

I'd wish to do BOTH though haha

I wish I could switch between both. To change things in the past. And see what the future holds.

Backwards, let me fight some fuckers in knight armor and then die of dysentery at 23.
