How can you vouch so confidently 25 minutes after the post was even put up? Where did you receive the vouch copy, how can you state it will undoubtedly lead to profit if you have had the guide less than 30 mins? You also don't have a vouch contract so you're "vouch" is already void.

Hi! He PM:ed me, and I sent the method to him. Here's evidence of that:

This method includes, in my personal opinion, very easy-to-follow explanations of how to implement and use the method. Therefore, it makes perfect sense for him/her to feel confident in my method.

I can vouch confidently because I PM'd OP right after he posted this thread as I was very interested in his methods.

I skimmed through the PDF quickly and realized that you CAN make a profit off this method with a little bit of investment.

You need to create a contract with the OP to leave a valid vouch, use the vouch copy option and enter the details and both need to mark as complete. If you don't when a staff member sees it its likely your vouch comment gets removed. Recommend doing so ASAP!

Why give vouch copies if they're just going to leave a generic good review and not actually show proof the method works ferarigator - February 4, 2024, 12:58 am

Is it whitehat? Or blackhat?

It's 100% whitehat. I don't involve myself in blackhat-related methods.

In which countries will this method work? Is it possible to work with this method in Russia, Kazakhstan or Belarus?

Or is this method only for the USA and Europe?

Hi! This method can be used in any country. However, it might be a bit harder to implement in the Middle East.

OP offers a unique and creative way to make some money in a field that you might be familiar with. You need some funds to start but it's definitely not alot. I can't see why someone wouldn't earn with this honestly. Worth the price it's listed at. GLWS OP!
