I've been working on a max "obby maunder" or "warhammer pure"

Been at this spot for several weeks constantly afking and grinding my way to 99 str.

I hope to be 99 before next Sunday.

Nice, but I bet this took so many hours, training at 1 attack is painful

Hmm!!

That's something to consider doing. I'd stream and record. Make sure to stream with a delay though, you don't want people sniping you.

It's a long way to 99 bro, in case you didn't know level 92 is only HALFWAY to each 99 ?. I suggest soul wars with higher level exp always shelled per level per zeal collected. Not a quick grind but least time consuming while more fun than brainless NPC killing.

Respect if you do everything by hand!

For me there was always a more enjoyable, tolerable mmorpg server like MoparScape. It always makes me long for it...

I've heard that people who really enjoy RuneScape generate a private script that can be undetectable. Have you had any experience with private scripts?
