Hahaha, we're really happy to read this type of comment. If, one day, you need a RDP, contact us with this message and we'll remember and give you a good promotion code.

Cheap, and quality.

I've only had it for an hour, but jesus it responds quicker than any other vps I've had.
Will likely trash it at the end of the month and upgrade to a tier or two up, I'm satisfied so far!

Good work. Port speed is great for the price. And, unlike your competitors, your site actually functions.

Anything specific that isn't allowed?

I'm not sure if it was done on purpose or not, but port speed isn't accurate on the homepage for 'usa.' , was pleasantly surprised when I went to go and order.

How long has the web host been in business? Have they changed management/ownership in that time or, more importantly, recently?

If people can not use rat malware tests etc on rdp server what is the reason to selling it on hackforums site?

Delete your post and do not sell it on hackforums if people can not use rdp service for hacking!

DramaKing - July 16, 2026, 11:13 pm

Good rates and reliable service, but they advertise domain names that you can do nothing with but point to a different service's nameservers or transfer the domain.
