Hello every one

So if u can take place of someone famous, for just one day who would it be and why?

For me i would choose being football player, in a dramatic match, to try the enthusiasm and power of winning

What about u?

I'd probably pick some rich lazy billionaire like Jeff Bezos. He probably has a mega mansion, super yachts, a bunch of hot women he sleeps with, etc. Would be nice to live that luxury for one day lol.

You notice how some actors have such good clips and amazing movie roles but in real life you wonder how they did that? It's also amazing how some actors have this whole new identity with a new movie.
