Thread: A Poem to Share, For Eyes That May Glare

Kalvaxas - March 18, 2024, 4:46 pm

Komodo thanks again for the opportunity.

I recently read a few poems from another member on HF, and it inspired me to write my own. So here goes!

In the realm where coins reign supreme,
Digital fortunes, my ambitious dream.
COINED stands firm, in my eyesight clear,
With Komodo's guidance, we'll soar without fear.

In this digital playground, we convene,
Discussing ICOs, NFTs, and what they mean.
The Metaverse looms, with its lure and its greed,
In the realm of crypto, where we all proceed.

Komodo, our captain, with eyes ablaze,
Navigates COINED through the crypto maze.
We hunt for tokens, seeking promise bright,
In the vast sea of coins, we're the beacon of light.

From Bitcoin's ascent to Ethereum's sway,
We ride the waves, come what may.
With wallets open and minds broad,
COINED's success, we'll surely applaud.

In the land of blockchain, our mark we make,
Embarking on gains, no room for mistake.
In cryptocurrency's realm, we'll never fade,
Our journey of wealth, an unyielding crusade.

So here's to COINED, embracing me in,
Using LTC, surely a win.
With each transaction, lessons we glean,
In the realm of money, where knowledge is keen.

Through ups and downs, we stand side by side,
In the crypto realm, together we stride.
With every trade, closer to our aim,
In pursuit of wealth, amidst joy and pain.

With this poem for COINED, and my faith on display,
Thanks to Komodo, for the path nicely paved.

You should give him a task to write a poem which motivates other to join COINED whenever you open recruitment. It will be awesome

Yeah, for some reason when I tried to tag you initially, it just didn't work. I edited your name and it worked after that. I'm assuming people don't get notified if it's an edit though.

Thank you! I appreciate that. I used to write poems back when I was a teenager, so I do have some background in that regard. I did journalism after that though, and creativity is pretty limited in that field as you're just reporting on different topics. It was still pretty cool to be able to add my small little flair onto articles I wrote, but I definitely prefer creative writing. It's more me.

Nice poem. Komodo should be proud!

I like this stanza the most:

"From Bitcoin's ascent to Ethereum's sway,
We ride the waves, come what may.
With wallets open and minds broad,
COINED's success, we'll surely applaud."

Much appreciated! It's definitely a change to revert back from journalism to creative writing. I re-wrote this poem 4 or 5 times before I got it to flow the way I wanted it to. It definitely got my creative juices flowing again.

I'm almost beginning to think I should have wrote

"From Bitcoin's descent to Ethereum's sway. ?

BTC keeps dropping and dropping pre halving.
