Hello everyone,

I know i dont really talk a lot on this website, i only posted 1 thread. This will my 2nd and my last. I posted saying im leaving hacking in general but also i got no hope to live anymore. I know some of you dont care, but i decided to post this anyway . This hackforum was really helpful, and i met a lot of friends and nice people.

Thank you guys for everything,
Goodbye,

This sounds so corny

So sorry that you're leaving. Don't give up on life, there's much more than HF and hacking.

Life may not always be cheerful and fun, but it's not worth quitting. One thing you need to understand in life, it will be a constant rollercoaster of UPS and downs. One minute things will be going great, then next minute something fucked up his happening. Just gotta stick it out.

See u around bro life will get better. Everything is temporary

This is exactly what I was thinking honestly

Mustys - March 29, 2024, 7:46 pm

Hope you get well, and take care!
