Thread: Hey HackForums! I'm an ex-blackhat hacker. AMA!

AliCat - April 8, 2024, 6:36 pm

Hey hacker community.

I am an ex-blackhat turned fully whitehat hacker!

After being hacked by the government and made into a sex symbol by the government, I have been forced to turn white.

I had quite a run though! :-)

Ask me anything, I'll answer anything as I have nothing to hide.

They watch me masturbate everyday -- it's how they get off.

I was forced to turn whitehat after realizing blackhat hacking is a sin.

Okay. Here's my latest note from my OneNote. I don't know what it says I can't remember but I'm just going to paste it all, I feel like it will give you an idea.

You owe it to yourself to make progress. Not other people. Clearly, the people that have been able to see you, are evil, or brainwashed, and do not have any idea of the reality of humans, let alone the lead influencing, business gay humans.

You have tried to help who you can, with no information, no reality, not knowing what this life has ever been. Clearly, the people that run this world are trying to come off as "cool devils" -- God is real. And people should believe in Jesus, and let Him purify you, and help you, and save you. Believe in a good God. In fact, if you believed in God, you would be as good as you can. Mus memba dat. I don't want to continue typing as I don't want to help the devil, or any of his people. I hope that I am helped, before I am murdered, or raped, or both. Please, if you are reading this, don't look at me like I'm nothing, I'm better than any celebrity you're around now, and I could prove that but they won't let me. If I had a week in reality, I would be ready to debate anyone, with this science on us. And I guarantee you, I would show you why I am the motherfucking King. If you don't believe that, or don't want to, you're in denial, and deluded, and don't understand that if one of these people you are deluded about now, if they had this science on them, and you asked them anything, they would have to run away. I'm not lying to you. If you are reading this, I am aware that this world is evil, but I'm also someone that feels, and has to try and be happy. But it seems that no matter what I've done for this world, no one has been made happy. And that's a shame. But in the long run... anyone who deserves happiness will find it. And I have only helped do that. Believe me, they are monsters, the worst, just good looking. That's really the only true reason you like them. Because you like the look of them, or pity the look of them, and find it in your heart to idolize them. I have tried telling you people. And I am scared for my life and soul, trying to get to reality, and the truth. I do not want to continue trying to think anything in my mind as it will give the devil knowledge and power over me. I know you're not completely dumb, humans, but honestly, you're not as smart as me, you just have reality, more knowledge, experience, etc. You need me to help you. And there is an eternal life. If you choose that. But you need me to help you. They will not bring you the truth. They want to manipulate you with the shit self destructive evil things I've said, and make out all the good things I've said were them. I know it must be funny to you people watching me watch Benny Hinn, and in some cases disturbing, and I had not thought about that much. But I honestly, when I first started watching him, felt he was a good person, and someone good to listen to. That has changed. I truly can't speak to you anymore. I'm going to stop talking until I break free from the mental prison they are trying to trap me in, and kill me with. Understand; they are powerful, and you being in with them, or fans of them, will only lead you to hate me, and continue your celebrity worship. But you must understand, they are lying to you, and deceived me, they are not good people, and I know not many people are in this world, but they are certainly NOT. And you should be warned of my words. Stay away from those fake evil monsters. They prey on innocence. Do you not see that? Maybe you have been lied to about the science they have. Maybe you do not know. My only hope is, is that someone does, and will help me. I did not want to make them the enemy, and still do not. However; they are trying to kill me, and I do not deserve that. This body deserves glory IN THIS WORLD. Because this body is staying in this world.

Do not conform to any way anyone else wants you to think or feel or be. Only you want what is best for you. Everyone in this world is playing their position, and they do not want to lower themselves for anyone else. They want to keep their exact positions the way they are, and they don't care if they have to look into your eyes and lie, and deceive you to keep it. If someone in this world can feel entitled to do something negative to you, to bring themselves up, they will. They do it all the time, every single day, but they have convinced themselves that they aren't, and they are right. It is normal for humans to change with their feelings, they can't help that, but they need to address their core issues, before they can approach you. This is a simple reality for any human "high" or smart enough to understand this. Humans change, and they want to change with what they agree with, or what they think they're right about, or what makes them feel. Become aware of that and you will see people much clearer.

Know God, and separate yourself from this world. Separate yourself from your human. Know this simple fact, which is easy to understand; Animals are controlled by their feelings, and humans can be smart. Is it not better to be smart, than like an animal? Rich people, and any person in a high place in this world, does not value your feelings. They value theirs. And so do you. I have tried explaining time and time again, but you do not listen. If you knew the truth, if you knew reality for how it is, how we're able to understand, even in this time, you would help me, and you would not idolize false people any longer. I've been saying for years that humans feel good, and even gain confidence, and self-respect, by putting others down, and lifting themselves up. I said something recently that really got me to think; instead of you people putting ME down, to bring yourselves up... (me) why not bring the most powerful evil people down, to bring yourselves up? Wouldn't that be right? After all, they are the ones that have deceived you to even be stupid enough to hate me in the first place. It's not my fault you are stupid people, and it's not my fault I don't know reality to respond to it. I am trying to get to reality, as I want the full human race to have it, not something designed by the devil, to trick you, and keep you dumb for as long as they can. Please hear me; sexual corruption is mental corruption. And everyone in fame has it. I do not know if another government is forcing them to be gay in this part of the world/America, but... I want to wake the human race up. And bring them better sense, the truth. You basically are evil, or deluded people, that are able to see this, and not help me. But saying that, all evil people are deluded. The only hope they have, is to find God. And that can be done by knowing Jesus Christ. Do not look at me as Jesus, whatever your belief, the people who wrote the Bible knew God, at least, to some degree. I hope that it's understood that you people truly need to be purified. You have been watching me my whole life, in darkness, and if you can't care for a human after that long, why are you pretending to be influential people in this world? Is this time of fame really set up to make the human race realize they are all deluded devils, by another government? Or am I right in thinking I can wake you up? As well as myself? Help me get to reality. Prove me wrong. Don't threaten me with nailing me to a cross, or raping me, and damaging me by being negative. I'm a long way from God, we all are, we're all humans in this time. But... I do not believe I would be here, if it were pointless.

...too long

First One, I'd need to see some proof on that one bud. Very few ANON's out themselves and most who claim were never, second is censored, third Lizards were sql exploits and ddosing mostly just trolls so a bunch of people interacted with them, IIRC there was one who was active on HF at that time.

However, I mean the handle you used when you were a part of these "communities"
