Rishabh - May 31, 2024, 8:07 am

Okay. So the guy has gone pretty much gone underground after selling these promotional codes, and ripping off a lot of people here.

Sad to see a long-time member go rogue...

What happened? They weren't legit codes?

Well, these are basically promotional codes, i.e. sourced through a third-party marketing offer. The face value is basically 1 month in length, and the only way they are going to work for 1 year (or whatever duration beyond 1 month) depends on whether the person who actually owns the subscription for it's linked service renews it or not.

This is what I've understood so far about these broadband promotional codes.

So essentially, what I could have bought for like $8 from ebay/g2a, I've paid this guy $20, with no replacement for further months of game pass access.

Quite sad really isn't it?

You pay for a service and you don't get it, then to top it off, the seller vanishes from the forum so you can't get a replacement.

I would start a dispute, but I don't have the energy to communicate with this idiot anymore.

I told you to forget about it, because it took you over 2 weeks to respond to my PM and had to go elsewhere.
