Hi Prostore,

Thank you for your interest, but I'm going to have to pass and save the final VC for a member with a bit higher credibility in the marketplace.

Feel free to wait for reviews and don't hesitate to reach out should you be interested in grabbing a copy of your own!

After receiving a copy of the method I went and read the guide and I will say that the method I did know about prior to and is something that isn't new. However, The guide itself has been put together with a ton of detail and plenty of information. If someone took the time to read it word for word, and implemented the techniques in this guide, They would be able to start a business. Profits cannot be guaranteed as it is very dependent on the time put in and several elements that cant be duplicated. I also will state that this cannot be fully setup in an hour. If you acquire all that is needed to run the method and acquire the traffic it could take you a couple of days before you generate income. I feel the method and the guidance is solid for the purchase price of 22.95. The OP was readily available to talk to and answer any questions as well, which makes the method a solid investment as he has guaranteed future updates.

Am I reputable enough for a VC?

x0rk - April 28, 2024, 2:14 am

Interested, but I have some questions:What are the payout options and how often?

Is it possible to get saturated? Is it scalable? Is it possible to automate?

Does it work worldwide?

If VCs are still available and and I'm reputable enough, PM me.

Got few questions :

1. How much total have you made from this and could you provide me with some payout proof?
2. Is there any way you can show me that it is actually a passive income?
3. Is it whitehat? Anything related to ewhoring/CPA/tiktok/instagram/youtube/digital marketing/digital product/reselling/affiliate marketing/creating content/dropshipping?
4. Do i need to talk with people or selling something to them?
