Bro you method involves selling the art on deviantart.com but the site needs the user to subscribe to core something plan to be able to sell.

The website is good I am not saying it is bad but I would prefer not to subscribe to anything just to sell stuff.

Awesome... for 20 bytes you tell me to sell anime art online including "Dragon Ball Z figures" and "Girl characters with big eyes + pink/green hair" for "anywhere from $5 to $25 should be fine"?

WTFF? Are you serious? This method focking sucks dude. Total scam.
