Thread: What website\(s\) do you visit daily other then Hack Forums?

Mooooookie - April 25, 2024, 3:42 pm

We all have certain sites that we visit daily... Hack Forums being one of them on my list. What other site is a must check-in for you?

For me, the answer isn't one particular site.. but social media platforms in general. While I don't have any social media accounts that represent me or are in my name, I do manage a moderate amount of Creators, Influencers and Fashion Models, so have no choice but to login on social media everyday, so I can manage their accounts and keep things rolling the way they're supposed to. Not a days go by that I don't use Instagram. It's the first site I login daily, and usually the last one before bed too. I also utilize YouTube, Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest and a couple other less popular social apps.

TooBurnt - April 25, 2024, 3:46 pm

Honestly probably YouTube... I know its sad but it's true... Pretty much hang out here and on YouTube for background noise..

Deany - April 25, 2024, 3:49 pm

FB marketplace, YT, ebay, various Japanese hobby sites etc...

Real-OG - April 25, 2024, 3:54 pm

I always visit condesk for news.

happygonutty - April 25, 2024, 4:04 pm

At the moment, just this forum and some TG groups. I have mostly withdrawn all of my social media accounts years ago as I feel like I am getting intoxicated and unproductive. I look forward signing up to other forums but not right now.

This is also the reason why I am looking forward for replies in this thread. Hahahaha.

I don't use social media (aside from Youtube, but more for learning or music). News, Youtube, AllInfoSec. That's normally about it unless there's something specific I'm taking care of. Usually use presearch for all of my searching needs.

Jamika - April 25, 2024, 4:21 pm

Facebook, ai image sites, ofc my work page, and other sites but little less

blackrose_x0x0 - April 25, 2024, 4:30 pm

The first ones that come to mind are chatGPT and YouTube. I always have a tab of both open.

Burger - April 25, 2024, 6:13 pm

Well i visit alot with my work, but for personal use I use Youtube or Pandora and Hackforums, Google, Tiktok, Facebook and def ChatGPT.

Other then that for work im always using Ubiquiti tools and ConnectWise. Alot of other 3rd party stuff that I cannot mention due to the nature of our comapny.

Syndicate - April 25, 2024, 6:26 pm

I don't really visit any other sites that often on my PC other than YouTube or Netflix

diablospartan - April 25, 2024, 6:44 pm

Well i also watch blackhat forum plus youtube and tiktok

Digitly - April 25, 2024, 7:07 pm

I won't say daily, but YouTube is one of the most frequently visited website

Never heard of this one. Is that local news, or world news?

Deany - April 25, 2024, 11:05 pm

I got YT on 24/7 too ! Can't get enough of the random top 10 videos lol

We learn something new everyday, because I damn sure never knew about presearch. Looks pretty interesting off the small glimpse that I just took. How long have you been using them?

Even if I'm not watching it, I'll still have it playing in my background. Purchasing YouTube was one of the smartest decisions Google ever made.

A bit off topic, but may I ask how your omegle alternative is panning out? I remember seeing your signature when I first joined the forum, and checking out the site.

I've been using them close to the beginning...2018. The company founded in 2017. Loved the vision and the idea. They've actually stuck to it and grown.

I see. Well, at least it's up and operational.. and people can discover it. How is the SEO on it? Getting any decent organic traffic? The original Omegle had a large amount of traffic going to it daily, and I'm sure there are a great deal of past users who didn't frequent the site, that have yet to find out about it closing. When they go to use it in the future, it's a possibility that they end up on your page when looking for an alternative. I know there were already a handful of similar sites, but you managed to get a good domain. Wish you luck on building the site up if you ever do decide to entertain the project again.

Take a look when you have some time if you're into this sort of thing. It's essentially a blog loaded with tips for using Linux. There is a megaton of information. I probably only spend maybe 20-30 minutes reading on there per day but I do so religiously.

Cool. I'm not a huge Linux user, but I have been getting myself more familiar with the OS, as everyday I grow a more and more dislike for Windows. The constant forced updates is enough to make even the most loved Windows user, consider switching.

Case search as in researching peoples past cases? That's actually a great skill to have. I wish I knew how to find interesting cases easily, as I would of continued with my Bodycam Channel. I went and got all the artwork and intro to make a Bodycam Channel... I even FOIA requested a couple videos from different police stations, and had the intention on starting a Bodycam Channel, as they get great views and engagement on YouTube. But then I realized, that despite having the Channel, Artwork and even a couple videos... there was no way I would be able to keep up with other channels, as I had so much trouble finding even the few cases that I did manage to get videos for.

Not sure what your side hustle is, or if you even have one.. but if you really are good at researching cases, you really should consider starting a Bodycam Channel on YouTube. You're pretty much guaranteed to succeed, as long as you can continue to find and get new content.. which it sounds like you can do!

Pr0m3th3us - April 27, 2024, 7:37 am

I scroll through a couple news sites just to see the headlines. Also the weather channel. And of course...Google...?
