Thread: 62 days later - \$BRETT shitcoin is falling apart

Backstory to my original thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6266155>

So it appears like some people leaked the truth about this shitcoin that went to $850M market cap in under a month after launch.

People traced the wallets and found out that about 200 wallets were whitelisted on launch, buying almost everything in the first 1 hour of launch, before the public sale started. So now over 82% of supply is being held by insiders, including that kid who "bought a brand new memecoin 2 days after it was created for $15,000 USD". That sentence is a giant redflag in itself.

anything from CrashiusClay69 is a rug or a pump and dump and people very well know he dumps on everyone and he also likes to call himself 'THE BEST PREDICTOR ON PLANET EARTH' its funny how alot of people are influenced by this kid.

Brett and a lot of other shitcoins in the scene are all operated by the same group called the crypto "cabal".

I am so shocked! I can hardly believe it. Are you saying that people shilled a shitcoin to pump up the price then dumped it on the market for profit? WOW!
