Thread: Do you like fishing?

Portugals - April 28, 2024, 2:23 am

I like it, sometimes it is very enjoyable to go to a lake with friends on summer days, drink beer and fish

TechPT - April 28, 2024, 2:24 am

Personnally, i love fish in bar =)

It is very easy to catch fish on the bar! :)

Deany - April 28, 2024, 2:25 am

Fishing is one of the better hobbies out there , yuh

Not very much, i almost go fishing once a year or once per two years too

Eran - April 28, 2024, 5:13 am

Never tried it, but I am looking into it, heard it helps with patience.

TooBurnt - April 28, 2024, 6:29 am

I always want to go fishing, then I get there get stoned and just sit around enjoying nature and never doing any real fishing..

L?G?ND - April 28, 2024, 6:41 am

I use to enjoy fishing a lot, whether it be fresh or salt water. We would sit on the beach for hours, slamming beers and shark fishing. I find it to be therapeutic and presents an opportunity to reflect.

Engaging in fishing served as a sanctuary from depression for me. Truly, there is nothing quite like the sensation experienced at dawn, gazing upon the serene reflection of a lake. The crispness of the cold air as it fills your lungs, the anticipation of that initial cast, and the instant when all worries dissipate—pure bliss.

gwiz - April 28, 2024, 10:59 am

I always have a good time when fishing, I don't drink or anything though, just some good ole' catch and release in peace.

ItsMeFox - April 28, 2024, 11:02 am i used to fishing with my dad when i was 8 years but since then i didnt go, i wish to do it soon

This is so good man

Tried it when I was younger but nothing since! Not sure if I'd be too bored just waiting for fish to bite.

Absence - April 28, 2024, 1:13 pm

I am not that much of a fan of fishing, but I would try spear fishing or some other more thrilling versions to see if I enjoyed it.

Miles Teller - April 28, 2024, 1:46 pm

I love fishing. It is super relaxing and a good way to kill some times. It is even more fun with friends/fam just hangin out drinking a beer talking about life

Syndicate - April 28, 2024, 1:51 pm

Fishing is honestly so relaxing especially when you are out on the water and enjoying a nice cold drink with maybe some music :)

HOMODIN - April 28, 2024, 2:18 pm

Fishing is nice af, I do it almost daily when I'm out living on my boat. I actually bought lures from the state, trying to find the place...will post a link when I find it but anyhow, they are perfect for catching european perch in the archipelago where I'm usually roaming :3

Portugals - April 28, 2024, 3:15 pm

Angry moments begin when the fish does not come. xD

I've only been fishing a handful of times, but the few times that I did go.. I had fun. We would take my Uncles boat, and fish for all types of things. This was when I would visit Florida. He has since moved, and I haven't been able to go anymore.

Pr0m3th3us - April 28, 2024, 3:37 pm

yes, used to go every week when i was a kid. Its a great survival skill to learn, also helps learn and appreciate patience.

Which type of fish do you catch most?

Depends, lake cats aren't so much but river dwelling "channel cats" are.

Need the right tool for the job, cats can get massive, ever see that show with Jeremy wade called "river monsters"?

Burger - April 28, 2024, 6:18 pm

I am an avid fisherman, I love the sport and will spend my days in the summer endlessly fishing with my buddies. Hot or cold rain or shine we are out there getting some slob!

diablospartan - April 28, 2024, 6:53 pm

Well its one of my favourite activity in life just that i want to go with quiet friends who focus on really catching fish and relax .I dont like to go with those who speak to much

Yin Yang - April 28, 2024, 7:11 pm

I don't mind it. I've never been fly fishing before, something I'd like to do

Marvelous - April 28, 2024, 7:17 pm

I like the idea of fishing more than actually fishing. I hate the waking up early and getting sea sick on a boat and getting skunked more than the thrill of actually catching a fish.

SpiritualDose - April 28, 2024, 7:18 pm

I enjoy fishing, but I don't do it regularly. I more so enjoy the peace of being on the water under the sun.

Euaggelistes - April 28, 2024, 7:44 pm

Love it. One of my favorite things.

Nicolushka - April 29, 2024, 12:48 am

I personally don't like fishing because it's too boring and u have to be patient

no but i will look into it

RowdyAvengerZ - April 29, 2024, 5:06 am

I like it, it is always refreshing + it's one of the best hobbies out there!

robexify - April 29, 2024, 8:43 pm

I used to go with my parents as a kid, but as I got older I found it less fun

Perfect - April 29, 2024, 10:07 pm

Like is an understatement, it saved my life in more than one way.

DemonAsylum - April 30, 2024, 1:57 am

I enjoyed it a bit when I was younger and more of an outdoors person with all of the usual things similar to that, but not these days, no.
