Hey Dollars, since you do not have a huge history, I have some suggestions!

First, whenever you want to post an ad for buying something, check out Buyers Bay

Deal on site, if you go off, explicitly verify who you are dealing with!

Next, since you are dealing with such an amount, please do not accept anybody not wanting to use a middle man like Nostre (formerly Genuine), he is staff, and his thread on trading safe is here:

I wish you luck on your journey, I do not have any recommendations for vendors. Here to help if needed!

Good luck
