Welcome to The Lounge

Hey what's up HF! Perfect here,

We're on a mission to find the funniest thread from 2017. Your task: scour the forums, dig up that comedic gold, and share it here in the comments and let's keep this thread rolling in nostalgia and let's change it every every week a different year ?

Let's get hunting, and let the laughter commence!

Are you ready for a wild ride?

Here's how it works:

1. Dust off your detective hat and start scouring the forums for threads that had you rolling on the floor laughing back in 2017.
2. Once you've unearthed a gem, share it right here in the post along with a brief description of why you think it's the funniest thread of the year.
3. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the laughter as we reminisce about the good ol' days of forum hilarity.

And as always see the Help Docs for more
Welcome to HF.. Great Start!
