8 Winners - Contest Ends 5/19 @ 10pm (EST) - Drawing is 5/20 @ 1pm (EST)

[mention=113705] will be the designated prize drawer to ensure fairness and legitimacy.

What's the point?

I created <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6228417> last year as I found a good rythm of putting picks together that were going really well. As I've started, thing's have really gone well and I'm focused more and more on growing and bringing other members into my community of sports bettors!

Every single day, typically by 9:30am (Eastern Time) I'm putting out highly researched, and heavily formatted picks for the day. Inside the community discord (which will be linked below) non-subscribed members can utilize the #FreePicks section every day, at no cost. Typically I will put 1-2 picks out for free, but these are usually picks that aren't extremely profitable but have a high win rate.

For subscribed members, they have access to #PremiumPicks and other Premium Chats where I am putting out 4-7 picks any given day, with a parlay builder as well. You can find my tips on AltBets as well, where I am a certified tipster. Below is some previews of the last 3 days in the premium picks section, as well as a free members link to join in at no cost or obligation (NOTE: Joining the free discord is NOT a requirement to enter this contest.)

Done and done. Since moving to Illinois, I've been following football more. It seems to be what everyone watches around here. They follow it more than the news. Anyway, go Giants. :D

Tagging Deany in this since he's in every contest. lol

LEGENDAVIE - May 5, 2024, 7:19 pm

I'd really like to take a look at this and try it it out, thanks for the giveaway. I'll tag @Joel randomly from my notifications

Chapman fancy a go? Unless you don't gamble!

I always throw my spare money down the drain because I can't win for shit. Been betting since I was able to and definitely could have had an extra £10k at least. My luck sucks and I feel like betting isn't for me but in my eyes, it's a way of making money. (Obviously not for me but you know what I mean).

Ps. I support Liverpool Football Club!

Why you spend lot of money on betting? Why not buy potential crypto coins in spot and hold for handsome amount.
