Thread: Coined group?

Chapman - May 6, 2024, 11:02 am

Is there any update on coined group? Both the owners/leaders of coined group are banned already. Any further updates ?

Blogger - May 6, 2024, 11:20 am

Komodo was more of the shitbag. I suggested this group before I knew they ran it. My bad, OP.

Chapman - May 6, 2024, 11:21 am

(May 6, 2024 11:14 AM)Sand Ferret Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Coined was a scammers wet dream - they could buy into the group for a measly $10, give out + popularity to random members and in return, get 1000+ popularity in about a week.

They will then appear like a trusted member and use that to scam people.

Have a read through the HF chat screenshots between Komodo and Migos - hopefully they both remain closed. (More so Komodo)
Ohh... so who owe that group now?

Let the past be the past, all you will do is taint the memory by reviving something that's dead and gone. It won't succeed.

I didn't exactly want 143 to be revived it died for a reason.

My goal is to bring everyone together naturally. 143 is just the focus of it. Love. Embracing. All that ooey gooey stuff that we all don't want to hear but we need to hear some days man !

I had way to many crosses with death and all I care about is spreading smiling and bringing communities together!

The way you're talking about 143 sounds more like Phoenix to be honest with you.

143 was taken more seriously, whereas Phoenix was also serious but more laid back with how the group was ran and had that "ooey gooey" family vibe.

How do I suffer a massive brain injury and y'all still don't remember me ? Lmao.

I think you were just at the peak with empire when I was messing with you. I messed with bandors, sir, and tandos, and a few other military folk! A lot of people in void lmao. Shit I was even in empire and black diamond and Illuminati!

I feel that. When I first joined I spent most of my time on HF to distract and occupy myself from negative irl distractions that I was trying to get away from at the time.

HF saved my life in some ways. I know that sounds like a joke but it's actually very serious.

Then you should exactly understand where I'm coming from in the sense of the love bro.

I mean if you spent time in the convos last night we were digging through the old

Wikis and embracing the fun memories that WE created on here.

That's what I want to capture.

I have a tbi. I can't use that as an excuse every time

Yeah the Wiki is a great archive, it really is. I'm just happy I was able to get mine done while they were still doing actual interviews and took legit hours to compile cause of how detailed the interviews were for HFWT. Mine took 4 hours for the interview itself, and then another 2 for @Reve4 neeuQ@ to compile and post everything.

I can now reveal that I feel Migos pretty much scammed me because someone from Coined private messaged me that they wanted 2500 bytes for me to join Coined and shortly afterwards Migos messaged me that he was kicking me out of Coined for not going to a private meeting that they didn't invite me to, and I knew nothing about. I felt that if I said anything I'd be hit with a bunch of minus ten reps since they had that feature.

You're really on here pressed about 2500 bytes? That's less than a Big Mac my guy. Not to mention the TOS of their buy-ins state that you must comply with all activity checks.
