Thread: Xbox game pass recommendations?

Chung - May 10, 2024, 11:50 am

Hello friends!

Anyone got any good recommendations on games to play that are available on the game pass?

Not played much recently as I've been focusing on the gym but got a few hours spare each day so looking for something fun to play!

Edit.

Some previous games I loved were Bioshock, Fallout, Fable.

Used to play games like Halo, FIFA, COD.

Found Goat simulator quite fun because it was crazy, chill and different. Not played 3 yet but that's on the list.

As mentioned in a diff post, I've played a bit of Diablo but it's a boring grind.

I play all sorts of games. But it takes something a little special to keep me interested.

Any good story lines? I do like a bit of a survival game like 7 days to die.

I also played games like Runescap and most recently League of Legends.

Firewatch, Halo MCC, What Remains of Edith Finch

You could try Gears 5 it's a good game.

Primate - May 11, 2024, 1:00 am

Forza Horizon 5

Sea of Thieves

pretty sure they are free if you got the pass.

What kind of games do you normally play or are you most into? That would help us to provide better recommendations for you.

Fuckk here I was hoping I could hit you with an easy Fallout recommendation haha. Alright what about Skyrim. Is that on game pass? Or the Metro games? I'm a big fan of those and they're similar to what you've mentioned.

MetaMask - May 13, 2024, 1:43 pm

I would say check out the Fallout games.

GamePass has Fallout New Vegas and Fallout 4.

Fallout 76.

With the release of the tv show on Amazon Prime the popularity has risen and will continue to grow. Been playing for years and I love helping others that are new to the game.

I also played games like Runescap and most recently League of Legends. Honestly BFV, and BF1 have great story modes.

Unsure if BF3 & BF4 are still available, but if they are, they have fantastic campaigns (would recommend the fuck out of them).

The Crysis games are also good!

Doom eternal is good!

I personally enjoyed Farcry 5's campaign.

MP can jump off a cliff, but the campaign was solid.I haven't, primarily stick with either H2 or H3 multiplayer.

Chung - June 4, 2024, 2:13 am

Outside? Whats that? Is that a new game on the xbox game pass?

They were doing 7 day memberships sometimes for Runescape too. Stopped that as well.

Starting playing a game called 'High on life' on the game pass. Aliens have taken over so you go to their world as it's 'safe' and start doing bounties. Hella fun so far. Chilled and funny.

That's the Rick and Morty like game isn't it? And that even has one of the voice actors?

BB5T - June 27, 2024, 6:42 pm

Valheim and state of decay 2 are 2 pretty solid games

Yeah it is. Some creator or designer from Rick and Morty helped produced the game or something like that. Gave me proper Rick and Morty vibes before I even found out that info. It was also soooooo fun to play

Yeah those are the vibes I and I think most (familiar with Rick and Morty anyway) got from it. Understandably so of course haha.
