Hey guys, 2023 was a cracker for me. I made handsome amount of money and I travelled to 16 countries in 2023. How was yours? Did you enjoy your life.

Slumerican ? - May 16, 2024, 11:46 pm

Hello there! I'm so happy for you. I've always been thinking of doing something similar in my life: going out, traveling, seeing new places and cultures, and spending a few weeks of the year just doing that. I have a question for you:

How much money do you think is okay to make before I do something like this? I was thinking that if I make around $20k, I would spend half of it traveling and seeing the world, and save the other half for my personal and professional life so I have something when I come back. Does that sound reasonable?

I'm more of a nature guy and would like to visit places like Egypt (Cairo), Peru, India, or other parts of Africa. Also, would you recommend taking this leap of faith to me or anyone else? Are there any cons that people should know about before they do it based on your experience?

Thank you.

Since I was a kid, I always wanted to explore the world buddy. I mainly travelled in Europe, MiddleEast. Since I have hotel booking techniques so I saved money on my stays. But else I guess you need around $12k-13K to travel that much. It's good to make a good saving before fulfilling your desires. You become a different person when you go out and meet new people. You should visit Morocco in Africa, Egypt is beautiful too and India also. I would say go region by region.

Yes buddy, I run a few businesses. I guess you need $13K around to travel to 16 countries.

What countries did you travel to and which one was your favorite?

Although I didn't travel at all, I still found life enjoyable.

No travel at all for me...but didn't die in a hurricane, so it was a good year.

Wow 16 countries in a year, that's awesome. For sure you've spent too much last year.

I wonder if you've get to chance to visit some Asian countries? If so, how many out of those 16 countries?

Eran - May 17, 2024, 6:23 am

LookTheAgency - May 18, 2024, 3:41 am

How you do it? Just drop in somewhere and if it smells right, stay for a bit?

Wow you seems to be an extrovert person who loves traveling. I am sure this travel will cost a lot, maybe you are earning great or you're from a well known-family ?

Shit, had a close friend die, got a new job, took care of some issues with my vehicle, flamed people, and didn't travel a whole lot.
