I have noticed that, although this Forum has 398k users, I'm not receiving 398k likes.

I'm not sure if this is being done intentionally or if these "friends" are forgetting to click Quick Love.

Either way, I've had enough. I have compiled a spreadsheet of individuals who have "forgotten" to Quick Love my most recent post.

After 2 consecutive strikes, your name is automatically highlighted (shown in red) and I am immediately notified. 3 consecutive strikes and you can expect an in-person "consultation".

Think about your actions.

Damn, I'm in the same shoes as you. Maybe I'll go make my own spreadsheet now.

Thanks for the reminder OP
