Thread: What your experience using Tor Browser for the first time?

SDdsdfl - May 28, 2024, 10:53 pm

Hey, Wassup everyone?. Tell me, What was your experience like using the TOR browser for the very first time? Any issues with it being slow/unreliable? Or what were the shocking discovery's that you encountered?

Go ahead and tell me more!

Jamika - May 28, 2024, 10:55 pm

I used it and i feel it annoying and complicated, i prefer normal chrome or edge over it

I used it to browse the dark web when I was younger, I felt like a real black hat. I looked for the usual things such as guns, hacking, and so on. Nothing weird such as porn or gore.

SO SLOW. No reason to use it currently so I don't right now.

Laxir - March 29, 2025, 12:22 pm

I felt anonymous. I felt like I was in the depths of the internet.

The first thing that annoyed me years ago was how incredibly slow it was. I think that was the major factor in only using it for basic browsing and that sessions were few and far between.

FrostMost - March 29, 2025, 1:48 pm

The first site that I visited was like not real drug website.

It honestly felt so weird to like seeing the thing that u only saw in movies like Who am I or Mr robot yourself also regarding the slowness of the browser.... eh... didnt feel much(except the first connection screen it was really annoying)

Rsynced - March 29, 2025, 4:01 pm

I found where aliens live and they sold me drugs?

Beherit - March 30, 2025, 5:12 am

Crystal Lord - March 30, 2025, 9:08 am

Well my first time when i started to know about it also that about slow speed, and i found out about a completely new layer of internet that was not known to me.

Ducky44 - March 30, 2025, 11:20 am
