Thread: What is the greatest physical pain you've ever felt?

Eran - May 29, 2024, 11:41 am

Gotta be horrible toothaches. I still get shivers from when I think about it ouch.

Chung - May 29, 2024, 12:53 pm

Someone once threw a rock at me, it hit me on my eyebrow.. That was painful as fuck. Got a scar from it though which makes me look cool.

Betty Blue - May 29, 2024, 2:11 pm

Kidney stone.

I hear people talk about root canals and how painful they are. Mine was a dream, felt like I was walking on a cloud. In comparison, I'd rather get a root canal than a cavity fixed.

Joy™ - May 29, 2024, 2:30 pm

1. Being pushed down the stairs and landing on my back which then knocked the wind out of me. 2. My intestines after I ate food with a lot of fiber felt like crushed up glass going through them (I have Crohn's disease).

Biggs - May 29, 2024, 6:01 pm

When I hit my little toe on the side of the bed.

Deany - May 29, 2024, 8:11 pm

Probably from food poisoning , worst pain of my life

Zher0 - May 29, 2024, 8:26 pm

Threw out my back lifting. Tried to stand up straight and the pain was so I fell to the ground and almost passed out.

Domestos - May 29, 2024, 8:57 pm

Probs getting 12 stitches without any anesthesia. Cried like a little b lol

L?G?ND - May 30, 2024, 6:10 am

I'd have to agree, toothaches are the worse pains I've encountered.

Deany - May 30, 2024, 6:11 am

Anyone else hit the metal bars on a jungle gym to get wind knocked out of them? That's up there high on my list too lol

Jamika - May 30, 2024, 10:14 am

When doctors removed the sutures in my 2 surgery, one of worst pains ever

madras986 - May 30, 2024, 5:27 pm

Stabbing myself while cutting vegetables

gwiz - May 30, 2024, 6:16 pm

Idk, I've been hurt a lot.

I remember one time I was shitfaced and went to tear shit up in a jeep with my buddy, he put in in reverse and put the peddle to the metal and we slammed into a tree... I wasn't able to move for like 10min, felt like I got hit by a train.

TooBurnt - May 31, 2024, 9:25 am

Oh man tooth aches have got to be the worst pain by far. Especially if you get a really bad infection. Take care of your bodies friends.

Yeah I have been through some pain before, like being stabbed, but tooth ache really fk'd me up and done me in ?? I do not want any more tooth aches ever.

Renowned - May 31, 2024, 11:14 am

I was attacked by 3 German shepherds when I was 11 or 12. I think that was probably the most fear and pain I've experienced all blended in to one.

Thankfully, nothing major. Just trauma. Hah.

Yep 1000% toothaches i had to get my molars pulled and the roots were infected most pain iv ever experienced in my life and iv broken bones before other painful shit but nothing like tooth pain. My mom also had some infected teeth and she said she would rather give birth lmao ?

whisperedone - May 31, 2024, 12:43 pm

Getting a skin tumor removed from my scalp. It wasn't so much the physical cutting that hurt since they used anesthetic, but the vibrations literally echoed inside my skull. It felt like someone raking their nails on a chalkboard, except the chalkboard was my brain.

.Mystery. - May 31, 2024, 1:50 pm

Gallbladder infection mixed with Acute pancreatitis

Bumface - May 31, 2024, 4:03 pm

Probably coming off a Sur-Ron at 60kmh at my local skatepark and crashing into the table. lol.

Controlled - May 31, 2024, 7:40 pm

I've had open heart surgery and they break all my ribs to get into my chest. When I finally am out of the hospital, laying on my back feels like I'm being pulled apart, like I'm being ripped in half.

Yanix - May 31, 2024, 8:26 pm

The dengue fever that hits me hard and makes me really weak for more than a week.

Lovely? - May 31, 2024, 8:51 pm

When I was a kid me and my friends were fooling around near some horizontal steel beams with very pointy ends, I end up jumping into one of them hard hitting my shin straight into it. When I get up and attempt to walk it off I look down and see my pants turn brown(blood mixing with my blue jeans) near my shin very rapidly and the magnitude of the oopsie i had just made hit me.

At this point adrenaline numbed the pain pretty much and there wasn't much fuss, but when I arrived at the hospital and after waiting for 3 hours due to massive shortage of hospital staff in my country back then I finally got into a room with a doctor, this is where the fun starts. The wound was really deep and I had to have anesthesia applied inside and outside of the wound, and up until this point there hadn't been any crying or anything but then the doctor pulls out a 8 inch needle and I tell you, when that shit entered the wound I started howling. The doctor even asked my mom if I was mentally challenged because of how much I was screaming (I was like 13 years old, but 1.95 meters looked like an adult so he was confused thinking a grown ass man was crying like a little girl).

Ended up with 26 stitches, 11 to stitch the meat within the wound back together and the rest to close the wound. The scar is big asf and the skin is still hella smooth 14 years later.

I was part of some "research studies" Andrew Huberman over at Stanford was running where they injected me with Sulfur Dioxide.

Blazin - June 2, 2024, 12:13 am

When hf goes offline for a few minutes, and I start to panic, and I reach for the max dose of ibuprophen that I can.

sector - June 2, 2024, 5:07 am

the worst pain i felt has got to be whatever i felt after i woke up from my appendectomy continously for almost 2 days straight

ThaBeast45 - June 2, 2024, 5:38 pm

Getting brutally jumped, beaten and stabbed at the age of 17 by an opposite gang while i was with one friend, 7 stab wounds 3 right leg 1 left leg and 3 in my right shoulder blade.. one was 3cm from a main artery and it took over 6 months to recover i was instantly given 8mlx2 of morphine and watched them stitch me while i was awake over 180 stitches..

My Computer - June 2, 2024, 6:36 pm

I had a pilonidal cyst around a month ago and it's probably the greatest physical pain I've ever felt in my life. Had it for around 2 weeks and the pain was horrible. Couldn't even lay down or sit down because the pain was sharp and unbearable.

Py_Dev - June 3, 2024, 3:22 pm

I broke my shoulder once. That was pretty rough.

Happyhacker - June 5, 2024, 12:11 am

Been shot six times but that ain't shit on breaking my femur bone. Infact having mrsa staff infection was more painful than being shot six times, lol and I died in that incident.

Zoogang1738 - June 5, 2024, 12:17 am

Either stepping on a Lego in the pitch black dark or getting kicked in the groin by work grade steel toe boots that hurt the worst

?ystem - June 5, 2024, 1:01 pm

Sixth grade, the last day of school was a field trip to a water park in town. We were there for most of the day and I didn't wear sunscreen, to which resulted in me sustaining second degree burns across my shoulders and upper back that needed to be scrubbed daily to remove the dead flesh.

YeahDude13 - June 5, 2024, 2:57 pm

Kidney Stones were the worst.

oRequiem - June 5, 2024, 4:26 pm

When I went unconscious after my potassium dropped to a severe life-threatening level and split open my chin to the bone. Yeah, that felt great. Also the feeling of having a seizure and dying on that hospital bed while having a concussion.

Damn brother, you're pretty lucky if thats the worse pain you've felt.

7 - June 5, 2024, 4:39 pm

Ripped banjo, cleaned the wound with raw salt.

Stabbed in the head & arm or a double cheek bone graft (sinus lift)

One of these

Dr.MLDS - June 5, 2024, 5:49 pm

Having my teeth extracted was painful

Charlie Sheen - June 5, 2024, 10:07 pm

I'd probably say the kidney stones. Those get so bad and last so long you start to think they may never pass.

ProtonBB - June 6, 2024, 7:00 am

toothaches are the worse pains

Beherit - June 6, 2024, 11:57 am

Glass going deep into my heel and having to pull it out myself.

Maskin - June 6, 2024, 7:46 pm

Not sure really. This was many years ago but I remember it hurt like hell.

After I had done a surgery and woke up, I couldn't pee so eventually the doctors had to put a straw looking thing through my urine hole. It hurt really bad, and I was given morphine before that too so I can imagine it's way worse sober.

Lets just say its all in the past.

You think you are the shit when you are teenager and you know the best, that comes with stupid choices, but 15 years later you know didn't know sht back then. Its all part of the journey.

That sucks man glad you're better!
