gwiz - May 30, 2024, 11:30 am

I mean, I'm sure I've bet money on stuff before. But the first time I actually gambled was when I was 20, overseas.

At the age of 13, I gambled by playing a card flip game where I had to choose the right card. However, they outsmarted me and scammed me.

They let me in the casino's when I was like 15, I was with a friend and I didn't have an ID with me, they looked at me and said: 'you are good to go.' so I went in and played some roulette, I didn't bet to much since I was young and poor.

But that was my first experience in the casino.

Man I gambled so much bitcoin in the early days of the crypto casinos. Prime Dice, dicecoin, etc

I remember being 12 betting .5btc several times. Once lost 12 btc in a bet.

Yanix - May 30, 2024, 9:07 pm

Charlie Sheen - May 31, 2024, 6:48 am

I used to make small cash bets with others on football games, or we would do a football pool. As far as make an official wager, probably 2 years ago. It was always banned in my old state, when I moved north I was finally able to place bets online.

Avalanche - June 1, 2024, 1:34 pm

18 and went to a casino. Proceeded to lose all the money I came in with. I think it was for the best as it put me off to gambling ever since then. I rarely gamble.

Glad to hear that's the way it swayed you rather than the way of feeling like you need to chase the loss or that if you came back again you'd definitely win or have a better session that time.

Absolutely which is strange because I've a very addictive personality so it's weird I've never felt the pull of gambling. Maybe because I always lose ? but ya every now and then it's fun betting on big games or fights.

BlackRock - July 16, 2024, 9:03 am

I was 15, bought a scratch card. We had a lot of bills at home, and it was my fault. It was back when you got charged per MB of internet and i didn't realize that. The bill was 1000$. lol. I only had a dollar. I remember i said to my mom " i'll fix it ", had no idea how, lol.

We were going on vacation to Spain, and my mom said that if we didn't figure this bill out, then we had to cancel it :(

Then I went to a store, and I saw these scratch cards. So i was like, its my only shot. I bought it.

Started scratching. I won 1000$ the same day we got the bill on that scratch card and we had an amazing vacation.

cardinalpython - July 16, 2024, 9:43 am

Vanished 70$ to a black hole in a casino at 20. Never did that again lol

That is kind of interesting. I was going to mention that it's a good thing you DONT have that kind of personality as I just assumed and of course many of those with such a thing would have kept gambling. I figured well maybe that isn't entirely the case for him so I'll reply something different haha. I suppose we're all sort of addictive personality towards certain things. I'm with you though. Just glad it isn't for something like gambling lmao.

Are stocks and crypto considered gambling or investments?

yes but crypto is pretty recent

Novo - January 3, 2025, 10:35 am

Well, I bet on sports with friends, not too seriously, just $50 here and there, since I was fourteen.

A friend of mine, though, has been on crypto gambling sites since he was fifteen; he has lost over $4,000 and keeps trying to convince me he isn't addicted because it's profitable with the daily boxes.

Mr_Kh4os - January 4, 2025, 5:26 am

I think I entered a poker tourney around 11-12 years old and that was where it really began haha.

N604 - January 12, 2025, 9:08 am when I was 8 i was gambling my stats roll boxes in maplestory

Blezebul - January 17, 2025, 6:50 pm

I started at 12-13 years old with csgo gambling sites (in the past there was a lot of csgo casino website and those site didn't ask for kyc or personnal informations so it was really easy to access for young people and those website was promoteds by youtubers who make csgo content so even if you don't have any interest for gambling and betting, there was a big probability to see one of your favorite csgo youtubers make content on those csgo casino)

After 16 years old i start to play on crypto casino website and i never stop, by luck on the long term i'm in a decent profit but if i have the choice i'd rather stop to gamble money (it's a waste of time, energy and obviously a waste of money)
