Who is your favourite gaming streamer and why?

I have to go with T1 , XQC , boaty , Odablock !

V?rt - May 30, 2024, 2:26 pm

I would say pretty consistently I've been watching Nadeshot lately. Also I enjoy watching Kai Cenat.

Couple of local small streamers, I like to watch the VODs while eating sometime because it's hilarious.

Don't get the chance to watch a lot of streams sadly.

Also some very specific streamers for various reasons.

Otzdarava - DarkViperAU - PirateSoftware

Otz is very friendly person who is generally fun to watch (even though most of his content is about Dead By Daylight)

DarkViperAU, even though he's a GTA V speedrunner, he has some very HOT takes.

PirateSoftware, what can I say? he gamed the yt algorithm and popped up for almost everyone (including me)

If by some chance they stream while I'm on, even though love their content, I don't disrupt my day just to catch a stream.

maybe if it's a weekend or a holiday, but other than that rarely do I ever watch streams.

I have seen some sneaky a while back but I don't find it entertaining and he doesn't game at all right?

Sneaky does play a few other games but I mainly just watch the league ones. Meteos was his jungler who's a pothead. Find him very funny.

I don't watch any of them, I play my games instead of watching someone play it for me ????

like a huge waste of time to watch someone play a game.

I'm with you. I don't have enough time to play the games I want, let alone play them and watch someone else play them as well.

I mean if I want to see what a game is like before buying sure I might watch 10 min or so, but watching for hours and donating money? Hell no.

I hear twitch is like red light shows now? Idk how much of that is true but I wouldn't doubt it.

Oh, yeah I've done that. But no way am I giving money to someone for playing video games. I got kids to feed.

Don't think I really have a favorite streamer honestly. Plenty that I enjoy watching, but none that I go out of my way way more than anyone else to keep up with, watch, etc. Normally it just comes down to whatever the person is playing honestly lol.
