I'm looking for good shows, like Silicon Valley or Halt and catch fire. Do you have any recommendations?

Not 100% about similarity, but a few shows I have been watching are Shrinking, and Suits, The Recruit. Are you looking for comedy or does it not matter?

Sorry not sure what those shows are but The Walking Dead was good if you like zombie/survival.

Currently finishing Breaking Bad which is about making drugs and selling it

I haven't seen the latest part where Rick and Michonne official reunited. Have you seen it already brother?

That's a spin off which I've only heard good reviews about. It's definitely one for me to watch when I get a long period of time to binge it!

That was the only episode that I still haven't seen. Just quite busy and always forget to watch but maybe this coming weekend I will find time to check it out ?

Oh wait, yeah there's an episode where they get back together. But they've also now done a spin off!

That one they were reunited I guess was the last episode for the TWD finale.
