Thread: Looking for an English-speaking manager for real ewhore

Mr. Atlas - May 31, 2024, 10:02 am

Hello, and first of all sorry for my English, that's precisely why today I'm looking for someone. ?

I have been managing a 22 year old ewhore for 2 years, on the French market, I have less and less time to take care of it and I am really bad at English..

So I'm looking for someone, like me, who has experience, but who speaks English well, unlike me, to attack the English-speaking market.

I'm trying to find out if Onlyfans allows the creation of multiple paid accounts? Otherwise I would suggest another alternative like Fansly or others.

I already have thousands of photos and videos, Soft/Hard, and I can have as much content as I want, verification video, verification photo, audio (French accent).

If you have skills and experience in the English ewhore environment, you can contact me to discuss it

I of course expect a minimum of proof to justify your experience. ?

Update, I received the response from Onlyfans support I can create 3 verified Onlyfans accounts, I already have 1 account for France, I reserve 1 account for the English of course

So I still have the opportunity to create 1 account for a market in another language, I am waiting for your offers

Would you be interested in the asian/indian market? i have experience and know how to promote in these sector and i can assure you success since compared to the english speaking market it would be far less competitive. let me know i would refute, you mentioned you have 3 accounts. i still would recommend you consider and let me know.

it is not about the per purchase profit, rather you would make more money in quantity. if not more.

i assure you that you give it a try. and im more than ready/motivated to start right now.

all the best.

Good luck finding someone.

I hope they can speak perfect English like myself.

Any previews of the model? she has to be really hot if we will be splitting profits on USA traffic with her

Mr. Atlas - June 1, 2024, 1:50 pm

The English market has just found its manager in a trial period for 3 months, there is still a foreign market to take (other than French and English).

There are only 23 million people who speak Dutch in the world, it's a complicated market
