Thread: Favorite HF Drama.

Laughing Man - June 3, 2024, 7:23 pm

What was your favorite drama that occurred on HF when you were a member, something that stood out and had a profound memory for you regarding it.

Mine would be Xvical getting raided by the FBI, going dark and then HF members going nuts as they were actively getting raided. The forums were utter chaos for weeks.

Ahh, I remember this. Crazy times for sure. My most memorable experience was when in 2010 an admin/mod 'hacker22' went rogue and started spamming/deleting threads en masse. I remember seeing the most disturbing images I've ever seen on the internet at the time. I made a video of it somewhere, but it's kinda cringy so I'll refrain from sharing it lol.

Amanda, I believe he owned Orcus RAT. His death was a shock to me.

What?! Members just got raided for no reason or were there actual reasons for the raids?

Absence - June 4, 2024, 2:37 am

Eh I remember some old drama before i was gone, just lots of people using booters on each other. But i dont really like much drama, mostly it is around multis and scammers.

I was not here in those days, but the drama i see every day is when peoples keep flipping, win thousands, brag, then lose them all over again

Uhhhh. Daily drama

I don't know if it qualifies, but watching newer members (myself included) get harassed and light heartedly picked on in chat is my favorite drama. High quality character building.

It certainly builds character. Makes for a stronger member base.,

Lmaoooo ?. I remember signing in going WTF ?.

Vinnie, and understalker drama was comedy back in the day. I remember vinnie kept calling him undiestalker ??

Brill - June 4, 2024, 7:17 am govern vs bellagio definitely #1. vypor vs kms was troll as fuck back in the day cuz of the diss tracks. hackercraft drama ppl getting swotted over the dumbest shit. tinychat dramas were always great. bandors, selling hacking mentorships. I can go on forever

Vegas - June 4, 2024, 7:28 am

The opening of the Rap Battles forum was peak HF.

No, they were members participating in highly illegal activities on a clearnet site. They were part of a sting operation targeted towards a particular group.

xVisceral (Didn't know he was from this website) created the black shades program, a lot of people who bought it got arrested so that's most likely why people got raided here

Did he actually? is there a source?

Nvm, just found it...

It's a shame, spoke to him a couple of times, he seemed decent.

LMPara - June 4, 2024, 8:14 pm

The Anonymous scam. Scammed around 40k-50k iirc for a "Hacker for hire thread" that was open for a couple years. One of the biggest scams in HF history at the time. That, and of course the blackshadow bustabit craze. Dude was a cracked out nutcase who flooded the forum with his methods for quite some time. Hope he's doin well. Can't forget about the whole Vinny lizkebab qbot leak, and the whole lizard stresser deal. Great times.
