Thread: This Game is Insanely Realistic

oRequiem - June 7, 2024, 10:47 pm

Bodycam just released a few hours ago for $40 ($30 right now as a sale). I'm having a ton of fun on this game even with some server issues (as expected for new release games).
I'm mindblown on how realistic this looks and sounds.

LMPara - June 7, 2024, 10:56 pm

Games been a loot of fun. Bought it the second it dropped and besides the server issues, the devs have already pushed 2 hotfixes and made good changes the community asked for albeit small, and its been a great time. $30 imo is still a bit steep for it. $20 or so sounds about reasonable.

Yeah I remember when the first look video of this released and people said it was fake and the game was irl footage xD

That was a different game called unrecord. Unrecord isn't out yet, this is a new one.

What are the spec requirements? On what device are you running it and how much FPS?

You can find the requirements on steam and I'm not even sure how much fps. I haven't checked, does feel good to me at least.

oh true, I saw XQC playing this and I just assumed it was the same

Undead - June 8, 2024, 2:09 am

Its the most realistic looking game I've ever seen.

Chung - June 8, 2024, 3:51 am

Yes bro, seen some clips from you on DC. Looks good, great graphics!!

V?rt - June 8, 2024, 9:06 am

I've been watching some clips of this. Game looks insane. Probably gonna pick it up.

?LEEP - June 8, 2024, 9:38 am

I'd play the hell out of this. I can't wait to get paid this Saturday.

RuneScape is better XD

Req bro, have you had any troubles with the lobby and people not readying up? That's what a lot of the reviews say..

Syndicate - June 8, 2024, 9:55 am

It really really reminded me of playing Tarkov except much cheaper price tag

banonkiel - June 8, 2024, 12:07 pm

I still remember when Unrecord went viral and people couldn't believe it's a game then the devs made another video showcasing nocliping and other features to prove it's actually a game.

I still remember someone commenting saying "It's actually very easy to make insanely realistic games by using more modern engines, controlling players' view field and using new gen graphics"

When I thought about it, I was like lmao that's insanely true.

I will probably add this as well as Unrecord to my Wishlist (will probably watch some gameplay before ever considering them) but if they good, might buy them next time they on sale.

Devs removed everyone readying up. Now it's just whoever is hosting the lobby.

Yeah I gotta build a new pc to play it full quality

SuseGD - June 8, 2024, 4:56 pm

I've been wanting to play this once it came out, but then I realized my PC would explode.

YeahDude13 - June 8, 2024, 5:21 pm

Are the requirements really that much? This looks so cool.

From the steam page, I saw it required quite a decent spec to play! But the graphics do look really good so it's understandable

Graphics are fucking pretty insane on this. I feel like we'll get similar games in the years to come as well.
