Will come in future, we working on it.

Most providers use virtual Numbers, shitty pools they dont work, non physical.. .
We could implement fast but only work with physical high quality pools, to find here reliable in US takes a bit time.

Anosim.net – New Features Live!

- 1 Day SMS Rental:

Now you can rent virtual numbers for just one day – perfect for short-term verifications. More numbers and countries will be added soon!

- Auto-Renew is Here:

Your rented numbers can now renew automatically. No more manual extensions! Auto-renew is ON by default, but you can turn it off anytime in your account.

- Self-Extend Old Orders:

You can now extend or recover old orders yourself, as long as the SIM card is still active. If a number no longer appears in the system, just reach out to support.

We're constantly improving and expanding our range of numbers and supported countries.

Check out the new features now at www.anosim.net – your feedback is always welcome! "this post for forums

Hi.

Service is up and working, sometimes its also setup issues that sms not send (VPN, Browser). Not saying this was the Topic here.

We have a 24/7 Support:

https://t.me/Proxied_support

Please feel free to talk, all cards are physical so should work super.
